He delivers presentations on concepts such as IRA maximization, farm easement and corporate owned life insurance for high end individuals. Prior to FSG, Jamie started in 2004 working as a wholesaler at First Trust Portfolios selling unit investment trusts, variable annuities, and ETF's. There, through hard work and dedication, he built up his territory to all-time highs growing from $25,000,000 to over $100,000,000.
