DIVINE MOTHER MESSAGE FOR: Week of 6.28.09

The softening of life's experience will shine upon you gently this week to come...it is a time for reflection of what has come to light in your consciousness before this moment. Reflect, my dear beloved children, on the messages that have come before this moment of your life's experience on how it has touched you... perhaps changing the direction you have decided to walk. Know that when you choose to listen to the heart of the Mother within your own divine heart... the softening begins... and you shall find the peace you were looking so hard for. It is within the heart that combines with the energies of the Divine Mother that finds this love to be the peace missed... before this awakening moment. My love is always soft, and always simple and never shall you find us judge or create pain... Love is gentle... and shall always be so!

I love you with every aspect of my being... and beyond!

I AM Divine Mother...My Love is with you! My Blessing to each of you this day is:

Release the struggle to know who you are... and listen... I shall whisper it to you...

I AM Divine Mother
