

Sol' Ara Au

Emissary of Divine Light

DIVINE MOTHER MESSAGE FOR: Week of 2.7.2010

Dear hearts of my being I greet you with great love and compassion this holy moment... this moment and each moment... indeed each breath is what you truly have. Worry and concern for anything beyond this moment cannot find solution. For only in this moment... now... can a solution be known. And so our suggestion dear ones is to remain focused upon now... this moment... for this is where your true power lies to make any change necessary or to learn or grow from. It is this moment of focus where YOU are! Be at peace, and know that everything that is occurring in your life is for a greater purpose. When you trust and have faith in your creator... now is the most precious gift of love! Our love blesses your awareness that today... only Now... is all there is! Breath... and feel the truth within your own heart...

I AM Divine Mother... my Love is with you Always!

My Blessing to each of you this day is:

Blessing you now...and all is well! I love you and send you light to awaken your true path!
