WORLD'S YOUNGEST KING TO VISIT MIDLAND

Midland, Texas —King Nyimba Kabamba Iguru Rukidi IV of the Toro Kingdom of Uganda, East Africa will be visiting Midland for a cultural exchange and visit with friends June 22 through July 9. At the infant age of three-and-a-half years old, King Oyo earned a place in the Guinness Book of World Records as the youngest reigning monarch when his father died suddenly and he took over the throne.

On April 16, 2010, he turned 18 and now may rule the Kingdom of over 2 million subjects without regents. President Yoweri Museveni of Uganda was one of his closest regents and a good friend. King Oyo and Queen Mother Best Kemigisa will be visiting with city leaders, businessmen and churches.

“My husband and I have lived in Midland for 24 years,” says Gloria Youngblood, coordinator and host to the King. “For the past 12 years we have traveled to Uganda to do mission work on our vacations. In 2004, we met King Oyo and his mother Queen Mother Best and became friends. We also recently returned from his 15th coronation in Fort Portal Uganda in April.”
