

MISSION STATEMENT OF PURPOSE:

- NGATHA International is organized exclusively for CHARITABLE, EDUCATIONAL and SOCIO-ECONOMIC EMPOWERMENT purposes.
- To this end, NGATHA International shall:
 - Support and/or engage in activities that channel relief aid to the poor, the sick, the elderly, and especially women and children of under-served communities internationally.
 - Support livelihood approaches through humanitarian assistance in promoting the social well-being by channeling financial support and aid for self sustenance in adversity.
 - Facilitate cost effective project designs that alleviate poverty among marginalized groups or communities and conserve the existing grassroots organizations with similar programs and objectives.
 - Support empowerment of poor communities through educational, socio-economic opportunities and assistance in strengthening community based organizations and user groups.
 - Support technology and institutional initiatives which support universal literacy and access to information for the urban and rural poor.
 - Promote/mobilize local and international support for solutions regarding educational, economic, environmental sustainability, social advancement and individual self-sufficiency.

NGATHA International believes:

- Our organization can be most effective at achieving our goals of optimum assistance through an interdisciplinary approach.
 - This will be achieved by partnering our own initiatives with the efforts of other groups, N.G.O.'s and grass-roots programs within designated communities.
