

Diabetes Wellness Day

Novotel Hotel – Southampton

Saturday 13th June 2009

Join DRWF and the Diabetes Healthcare Team from the Royal South Hants Hospital for our latest Diabetes Wellness Day.

The day will include talks on various aspects of diabetes and the other conditions associated with it. There will be an exhibitor's room, where you can find out about the latest blood-glucose meters and diabetes related products and refreshments and a sandwich lunch will be provided by DRWF. A registration fee of £3 is asked for to help us cover the costs of running the day.

With ideal transport links and situated within the town's main shopping area, we hope to attract people with diabetes or an interest in diabetes from the southern region to what will be an informative and educational day.

Whether you have Type 1 or Type 2 diabetes, the Diabetes Wellness Day will provide you with the opportunity to discuss your diabetes related concerns with the speakers in an informal environment and have all your questions answered in one go. The day will also provide a wonderful platform for mixing with other people with diabetes and making new friends.
