

Celebrating Family

There is a place in God's family for every one of us. DCC affords all an opportunity to get to know God and others in a more intimate way. It's a place to serve and a place to be fulfilled. "A Place for you!" is more than just a phrase; it's what we believe...it's who we are!

Committed to Fellowship

Dave Torgrenrud

Dave has been attending Dove Christian Center since 1996. He began attending when Dove Street. Dave immediately participating in home-cell groups, and small group Bible studies. Dave is a retired electrical engineer who worked his way through college as a smoke jumper. He also spent 5 years in the oil field industry as an engineer, two years of which was overseas. He currently is employed with a national "Experience Works" program through the Job Service for those over 55. Though he is a quiet man by nature,

Though he is a quiet man by nature, Dave says he's looking forward to getting to know more people from Dove.

Coffee anyone?