

Dojo Kun

“DOJO” is training hall but literally means “the place to study the way”. Karate Do translates to “the way of the empty hand. Students should always pay proper respect to their Dojo.

Dojo Kun are the motto’s of the Dojo and remind students of important moral principles which their school follows. Each School has their own Dojo Kun and are formed by the schools Master. Below are the Dojo Kun of Shobukan formed by Master Kyoshin Kayo

1. Karate - do always starts and ends with respect and courtesy
2. Karate - do techniques and spirit must be blended as one
3. In Karate -do we train for to strengthen our bodies and our minds

SHIN
(Mind)

GI
(Technique)

TAI (Body)

4. Adopt the attitude of
 - Fire : Strong spirit , without fear
 - Wind : Fast and overwhelming like a typhoon
 - Mountain :Stable spirit and unbreakable self confidence
5. Train to develop :
 - Strong character
 - Knowledge of other styles
 - Understanding of various factors of Karate-do techniques
 - Special techniques to suit oneself

