

We're different than any other "baseball camp" in America.

We are in the business to improve baseball skills, but the building of big league citizens is equally important. We concentrate on developing self-confidence, self-reliance, and self-discipline.

Daily Activities

- Group, team and individual training
- Evening meetings with coaches

Coaching Staff

- 90% have played professionally
- 12 instructors are former Major Leaguers

Camp Life

- Hotel, food and transportation is included
- River Cats game for Sessions 1 and 2 students

Our Mission:

"To teach and develop skills that promote dedication and respect for the game of baseball, and to instill lifelong lessons that are conducive towards strong character and integrity—key to achieving personal goals in the areas of academics, citizenship and athleticism."

– Dusty Baker,
Founder

- Manager, Cincinnati Reds
- 1993 -1997 - 2000 National League Manager of the Year
- Only the second Manager in NL history to take three different teams to the playoffs (Giants, Cubs and Reds)
- Two time All-Star
- Golden Glove Award winner
- Two time winner, Silver Slugger Award
- World Series Champion

Our Instruction Plus Showcase is less expensive– but more valuable– than a typical showcase

We include all hotel, food and transportation in a one-week program for 15-18 year olds that also offers:

- Major League instruction and maximum exposure to college coaches and recruiters
- Three days of professional "skills" instruction to enhance your defensive, pitching and hitting skills.
- Two days of showcase games in front of college coaches and recruiters.
- Evaluation from our staff on individual skills.
- Nightly lectures in the hotel on subjects ranging from baseball skill development to information on college recruiting and college "lifestyle" information.
