The Second Sunday of Lent

Sister Vera Meis

60 YEARS OF LOVE AND SERVICE

I would not trade the last 60 years as a Sister of St. Joseph for anything. I've been so blessed. I grew up in a strong Catholic family, which taught me to appreciate my faith.

I met Sister St. John, who radiated joy, when I attended Marymount College. I wondered what made her so happy. Could it be that she was a Sister? While looking at relationships, I decided that marriage was not the route I wanted to take. I was searching for the "perfect one."

After college, I attended a spiritual mission. The priest mentioned that God was calling enough people to be priests and sisters, but some were not listening. I asked myself, "Could it be that God is calling me?" As I prayed about my life, I felt called to religious life. I prayed for direction in knowing God's will for me. I asked myself, "When am I the most happy?" I found that I was most at peace and happy when I was visiting the sick, praying with those who are in grief, and helping people deal with life's questions, their joys and struggles. I knew I could do this as a Sister. So, I decided to enter the Sisters of St. Joseph in Concordia.

It was here that I felt so at home at the place where I said "yes" to the love of my life, Jesus, the "perfect one" who filled my life with joy.

My passion has always been to deepen my relationship with the Lord and to try to model my life after his. I've been blessed to make 30-day retreats that helped prepare me for the ministry of teaching, serving as a chaplain at Valley Hope Alcohol and Drug Treatment Center, as a member of the Leadership Team of our congregation, and as a pastoral minister.

Some of the unique joys I've had in my ministry were being on a pastoral team that started Resurrection Parish in Grand Island, helping to start a new Valley Hope Alcohol and Drug Treatment center in Parker, CO, and being hired as a pastoral minister at St. Theresa's Parish in Mitchell, Neb., as well as St. Agnes Parish in Scottsbluff, Neb. To walk with people dealing with life's joys, sorrows, struggles, and questions is a great honor and privilege for which I am most grateful.

I loved my ministry in Nebraska and continue to be inspired by the people in Mitchell and Scottsbluff, who keep me informed about the progress of their parishes. A call from them is like receiving a call from home.

Thank you to all who have touched my life.

Celebrating Sunday
Second Sunday in Lent
Gospel: Mark 9:2-10

On the Way to Mass:

We pray a prayer at Mass called the Gloria. Be sure to listen to the words: “We praise you,/we bless you,/ we adore you,/ we glorify you.”

On the Way Home From Mass:

What do you imagine the glory of the Lord looks like? How can we give God glory? What would that look like?

Living the Word:

Make a prayer card for your family prayer table, or as a centerpiece on your dining room table, that reads GLORY TO GOD. Pray the Gloria prayer from Mass or the Glory Be prayer each night this week. Discuss when and where you have experienced the glory of God.

What's Happening at St. Agnes School.....

Pre-K Class By Nicole Boness

February has been a busy month. We started off by celebrating the 100th day of school. The kids got to dress up as if they were 100 years old. They ate sausage and pancakes with the kindergarten class, made 100 day necklaces out of fruit loops, and made hats.

We also celebrated Catholic School Week. Each day the kids got to do a different activity. The older kids read to Pre-K, which they loved. We made cards for our parents and the nursing home. They got to have a special picnic with their family and celebrate our wonderful school.

One of the fun things we did this month was make moon sand. The kids loved getting to make their own at each table and getting dirty. We also got the shaving cream out and the kids got to make their letters and shapes on the table. Then we did some cleaning with it.

This past week we held our last party of the year. The kids enjoyed celebrating Valentine's Day and learned about loving one another. They also enjoyed making crafts and handing out goodies to one another.

It's hard to believe that we only have two and half months left of school. I know it's going to go by fast. Soon we will be getting ready for conferences, spring music concert and graduation.

Third Grade Class By Meghan Calvert

We are rolling through the last semester of school, and it is a bittersweet moment for all of us. This last month has been busy with the 100th day of school, Valentine's Day, Mardi Gras and Ash Wednesday. For the 100th day of school, 3rd grade dressed up as a decade from the last 100 years. We had a blast at our Valentine's Day party. Thank you to Mrs. Merrigan for the fun game of charades! The next day was Mardi Gras, where the students enjoyed creating a banner and having a parade around the gym for their parents. Our king was William Adamson and our queen was Allie Windhorst.

In religion, we took time to look at different Psalms. The students then went through and found one that really spoke or stood out to them in that moment. They then wrote it on a big heart, and we hung them out in the hallway creating The Psalms to the Heart wall.

Over the last few weeks, we have been learning about Black History Month and the students really gravitated to the story of Ruby Bridges. It opened a lot of great discussions in our classroom and the students took some time to reflect on how they would feel to be in Ruby's shoes. They thought it was amazing that even through all the awful treatment, Ruby would be heard walking into school every morning, praying for all those people, asking God to forgive them, instead of wishing ill will on anyone.

We are still going strong in our new math curriculum and finishing up unit 7, which is all about fractions and equal parts. Math has turned into our favorite time of the day in our classroom. It is fun to watch the students dive in and learn in different ways.
