Press Release

Sandra Schlaefer has been awarded the Health Care Reform Studies certificate from The American College.

King and Companies recognizes the demand health care reform has on your benefits program.

Burnsville, MN, March 13, 2012: King and Companies, an Employee Benefit Firm and Independent Insurance Agency, is pleased to announce that Registered Health Underwriter, Sandra Schlaefer has obtained the Health Care Reform Studies Certificate from The American College in Pennsylvania.

“With an ever evolving legislation, benefit programs will change in the future”, states Sandra Schlaefer. Health care reform will impact every American and not only employers. How employers and employees purchase health insurance will be dramatically different in the future. Reporting, taxation and compliance are not new to the benefits industry, though everyone will have a new role and play a part in this legislation.

King and Companies' mission is to enhance their clients experience by providing the Human Touch to Insurance and financial services through innovative programs for employers, employees, individuals and seniors. Contact Sandra Schlaefer at (952) 746-5959, or stop by for a cup of coffee with any of the staff.
