The Worship of God ◆ ◆ ◆ Gathering

The ◆ indicates that those who are able are invited to stand.

Prelude

During our silence while listening to the prelude

O God, full of compassion,
I commit and commend myself to you,
in whom I am, and live, and know.
Be the goal of my pilgrimage, and my rest by the way.
Let my soul take refuge
from the crowding turmoil of worldly thought beneath the shadow of your wings.
Let my heart, this sea of restless waves,
find peace in you, O God. Amen.
—Augustine of Hippo, 354-430

Call to worship

One thing I asked of the Lord,
that will I seek after:

to live in the house of the Lord
all the days of my life,
to behold the beauty of the Lord,
and to inquire in his temple.

“Come,” my heart says, “seek his face!”

Your face, Lord, do I seek.
Let us worship God.

Prayer of confession (unison)

Merciful God,
you pardon all who truly repent and turn to you.
We humbly confess our sins and ask your mercy.
We have not loved you with a pure heart,
nor have we loved our neighbor as ourselves.
We have not done justice, loved kindness,
or walked humbly with you, our God.
Have mercy on us, O God, in your loving-kindness.
In your great compassion,
cleanse us from our sin.

Create in us a clean heart, O God,
and renew a right spirit within us.
Do not cast us from your presence,
or take your Holy Spirit from us.
Restore to us the joy of your salvation
and sustain us with your bountiful Spirit;
through Christ your son, our Lord. Amen.
