FROM THE PASTOR'S HEART

This Sunday morning we will have a guest speaker who is outstanding. He is a Viet Nam' veteran who was critically wounded but through a sovereign act of God was spared. His name is Clebe McClary. Here is an excerpt taken from his autobiography "LIVING PROOF".

"An enemy soldier huddled right above me. I got off the first shot. He hurled forward plunging into the pit with me. A satchel charge in his hand exploded hurling both of us into the air like limp rag dolls.

"Man, where is my shotgun? I reached back with a bloody stump...my left arm ripped off below the elbow.

"Oh God, not me. My thoughts screamed into the infinite blackness. I lay stunned, unbelieving.

"Fight or be slaughtered. Unsuccessfully I tried to pull grenade pins with my teeth. To bolster my men, I darted from one position to another directing fire. Another grenade sored in.

"My face! Blinded by blood I didn't suspect the left eye was blown out. I choked on blood and broken bits of teeth...my lips and gums burned, I couldn't hear, my head throbbed."

The flowers are placed in the sanctuary Sunday by Mrs. L. P. Childers, her daughter and son John, to the glory of God and in loving memory of husband and father, L. P. Childers.

CONGRATULATIONS to Mr. & Mrs. Walter (Buddy) Parnell on the arrival of a son, Matt Walter, Monday, February 16.

Mrs. Sabra Weeks would like to thank the pastor and friends for their visits, prayers, and many acts of kindness during her hospitalization.
