Brittany Cross is an independent representative of life insurance, disability, and asset based long term care. She has direct access to the industry's leading carriers. Brittany started in the insurance industry in 2004 and has held multiple positions that helped contribute to her understanding of the insurance marketplace. Her responsibilities have included point of sale, education, marketing, and rollout of life insurance, disability, and asset based LTC to financial institutions and national banks. Brittany currently provides professional point of sale support to both national and regional financial institution clients. She is dedicated to bringing holistic risk management solutions to light as part of an overall financial plan for individual and business needs.

She serves on the Board of Directors of the Professional Life Advisors Network (PLAN) and the National Association of Independent Life Brokerage Agencies (NALBA). Brittany also serves on several advisory council boards for major insurance carriers. Brittany holds a Series 7, Series 66, and Series 24. Brittany lives in Portland, Oregon with her wife Hannah and their son Brady. She and her family enjoy hiking and spending time in the beautiful Pacific Northwest.
