Mark Hyman is an Insurance Planning Specialist with BKA Financial. Prior to joining BKA Financial, Mark was a Regional Sales Vice President with MetLife. For the past 8 years, Mark was responsible for covering Bank of America and Merrill Lynch on a national level. Mark's primary focus was providing insurance-based strategies and solutions with an emphasis on wealth accumulation, wealth preservation and wealth transfer, to advisors and their most valued clients. Over the years, Mark has established hundreds of advisor relationships built on trust, partnership and mutual respect. His expertise and clear understanding of the importance his role plays in the advisor-client relationship make him an invaluable partner to any professional advisor seeking to strengthen their client relationships through insurance-based planning.

Mark holds a FINRA Series 6, 63 and a Life and Variable Life licenses. He currently lives in Oakland Twp., Michigan with his wife Linda and their four children.
