Kathryn started her career in 1995 at TBA. Since then, she has worked as an internal wholesaler for First Tennessee Bank. Kathryn returned to TBA in 2011 and utilized her experience at First Tennessee to build relationships with regional and community banks in Tennessee. Since 1995, banks, financial institutions, and professional advisors have chosen Kathryn Kinnane as their lead insurance advisor for her deep industry experience, long-standing relationships, and patience. What this means to you is having a partner who is dedicated to solutions and committed to helping you grow. The real benefit is having someone you and your clients can depend on.

Kathryn is currently serving her second term as President of NAIFA Knoxville. She also serves as a Volunteer for Remote Area Medical. In her free time, she enjoys spending her time riding her horse, hiking and mountain biking.
