Keith joined the brokerage world as an Agent Recruiter at Capitas Financial. He quickly grew into the roles of SVP and Disability Income Specialist. Keith joined the Dixonwells team in June of 2014. In his current role as a Regional Director, Keith assists in bringing personal, business, & estate planning strategies from concept to closure. With the ability to provide insurance solutions which are carrier- and product-neutral, Keith provides the financial advisor and their clients with an objective analysis and optimum choices.

Keith moved from the frozen tundra of Wisconsin to attend the University of South Carolina. While attending USC Keith was a member of the Rugby Team and LXA fraternity. Keith enjoys running half marathons, biking century rides, playing rec sports and spending time with his dog, Gypsy.
