Background & Experience

Onel Garcia first joined Brandon Brokerage Group in 1994. After several years of service with the company, he became part owner and Principal of the firm, providing top quality services and financial solutions to clients, with a core focus on the high-net-worth foreign national market.

Under Onel's leadership, Brandon Brokerage Group was able to dramatically increase the company's visibility by partnering with top money managers, bankers and other financial professionals and assisting them in offering their clients products and solutions to meet their financial goals. Onel's vast experience and knowledge of life insurance, coupled with his keen awareness of client needs, allowed him to help make Brandon Brokerage Group an industry leader.

Due to its strong market presence and key business relationships, Brandon Brokerage Group has consistently been a top-producing agency throughout the years for several insurance carriers such as Lincoln Financial, John Hancock, Nationwide and Transamerica. The company also maintains strong relationships with several other domestic and off-shore carriers providing a vast array of options and solutions for clients.
