Eric Silk is a life, disability and long-term care insurance professional with over 24 years' experience. He works with advisors and their clients to analyze risk exposures, identify possible solutions and, when appropriate, implement insurance. As a broker, Mr. Silk looks for the right design and policy type from a range of insurance companies. While Mr. Silk and his team have a broad range of experience and regularly work on personal insurance coverage he focuses his practice on working with Financial Advisors.

After earning a Master's degree in Economics from the London School of Economics Mr. Silk completed his Chartered Life Underwriter (CLU) and Chartered Financial Consultant (ChFC) designations from the American College. He is also a member of the prestigious Phi Beta Kappa Honors society, serves as a volunteer with both the Aliso Viejo Little League and his sons' Boy Scouts of America troop. Professionally, is a member of the Orange County NAIFA chapter. Eric and his attorney wife, Pamela, live in Orange County, California with their two sons.
