INTRODUCTION

Soon your child will join your family and God's family at the Lord's Table for the first time. Christ gave us a precious gift when He instituted the Eucharist at the Last Supper. Through this gift, He remains with each person in a very intimate way. For this reason, the day of your child's First Communion is an enormously important day in his or her life – and your life as well. Your child's enthusiasm and joy can increase your own, and vice-versa. And that joy can affect the entire parish community.

First Communion is considered one of the holiest and most important occasions in a Catholic's life. It means that that person has received the Sacrament of the Eucharist, which is the Body, Body, Soul, and Divinity of Jesus Christ. Celebrations of First Reconciliation and First Eucharist will be celebrated once a year at St. Agnes Catholic Church.

Sacramental Preparation at St. Agnes consists of expectations for the children as well as their parents. The children's expectations are as follows: Regular attendance in the religious education formations sessions in the school or the Sunday program; attendance at the First Communion Retreat, First Reconciliation, and First Holy Communion. The parent's expectations are as follows: Attendance at three parent's meetings and the First Communion Retreat.

The best preparation parents can give their child is to practice and live the faith. One of the most important ways to do this is regular attendance at Mass. An integral part of our child's faith formation is participation in the Sunday Liturgy. Talk with your child about Mass before you go and at appropriate moments in the actual celebration when you are in church together. Emphasize that the Mass is God's family celebrating a sacred meal. While completing the Sacrament lessons (attending Sunday Religious Education formation sessions or at St. Agnes Catholic School) is important for learning practical knowledge, faith should also be experienced. To be part of the parish family and to worship together each Sunday is to be part of faith in action. Parents, as the first educators in the faith it is expected that you will give your child these experiences so your child will be encouraged to practice and live his/her faith.

First Reconciliation and First Eucharist Requirements

The Mission of St. Agnes Religious Education Program

The catechetical programs at St. Agnes are dedicated to sharing the Gospel and promoting the Catholic faith through catechesis, evangelization, and Christian witness. The goal of St. Agnes PREP is to help children and youth develop their relationship with Jesus Christ. We strive to help the children and youth understand their faith through catechesis so that they may live it in today's world

The Role of Parents

According to the Catechism of the Catholic Church, "Parents have the first responsibility for the education of their children. They bear witness to this responsibility first by creating a home where tenderness, forgiveness, respect, fidelity, and disinterested service are the rule. The home is well suited for education in the virtues. Parents have a grave responsibility to give good example to their children" (Catechism of the Catholic Church 2223).

You as parents are the most meaningful adult Christians' in the life of your child. You show your love for your child and give witness to your faith when you share your convictions. In particular, your personal responses to God's love show your child that Reconciliation and Eucharist are part of our daily lives. They are not events that only happen as part of one special celebration day; they are truths that exist at life's very center.

No only is the Church emphasizing your role as parents in your child's religious education but emphasizing the responsibility of our whole parish to help you fulfill your role. To assist you in this responsibility, we will provide you with additional information, guidance, and the confidence you need through our parent's meeting and liturgical celebrations.

Each family will be provided with the book, We Learn About Mass to work on together at home. The book is designed to help you and your child to understand more about the Mass, and how to actively participate in it.

If your son or daughter attends the faith formation session on Sunday mornings the catechist may be sending home worksheets that are to be completed at home. Please send the completed worksheets back to following formation session.

Parent Parish Covenant Rationale

The Catholic Church takes most seriously the role parents play in the education and formation of their children in ways of the faith. The Church documents are clear in their stance about the role of parents:

- “[Parents} are the first to pass on the faith to their children and to educate them in it. By word and example they form them.” (Decree on the Apostolate of Lay People #11)
- “Since parents have given children their life, they are bound by the most serious obligation to educate their offspring and therefore must be recognized as the primary and principal educators.” (Declaration on Christian Education #3)
- “Because they have given life to their children, parents have a most serious obligation and enjoy the right to educate them; therefore Christian parents are especially to care for the Christian education of their children according to the teaching handed on by the Church.” (Canon #226)
- “Parents above others are obliged to form their children in the faith and practice of the Christian Life by word and example.” (Canon #774.2)
- “You [the parent] are accepting the responsibility of training him (her) [the child to be baptized] in the practice of the faith. It will be your duty to bring him (her) up to keep God's commandments as Christ taught us.” (The Rite of Baptism)
- Simply put, children first learn the practice of the Catholic faith at home by the example of their parents. At the appropriate time the Church teaches that the parish should assist the parents by providing a more formal catechetical program that helps to educate and form their children in the Catholic Faith.

Parent/Child Preparation

Parents of the child preparing for First Reconciliation and First Eucharist are required to attend the following Parent's Meetings: November 18, 2018 – January 20, 2019. The Parent's meeting will introduce catechetical teachings regarding the Sacrament with main focus on First Reconciliation and First Eucharist. Parents will receive information to assist them with the preparation of their child for the Sacraments of Reconciliation and First Holy Communion leading to a meaningful and joyful celebration of the sacraments, not only for the first time, but each time thereafter.

Liturgical Celebrations

First Reconciliation will be celebrated at St. Agnes on Sunday, January 19, 2019 at 10:30 A.M. Parents will be able to participate in the Sacrament of Reconciliation on this day as well. There will be a lunch following Reconciliation in the Garden Level of the Church for children and families.

First Communion Retreat will be held on Saturday, April 6, 2019 from 8:30-11 A.M. in the Garden Level of the Church. Parents will be asked to assist with the retreat. The children will rotate through three centers: a bread making center, a skit center, and a church tour. The First Communion banner will be due on this day. Also, the local Catholic Daughters court will be in the Garden Level selling religious articles to families that are interested.

First Holy Communion will be held at all weekend Masses, May 4, 2019 – 4 p.m. and Sunday, May 5, 2019 at 8 a.m. The children's banners will be hung in the Gathering Space and will be returned after the weekend. Please note that the Sunday formation session will not be held for the 2nd grade class on this Sunday. Children are asked to meet in the Garden Level of the Church at 3:35 p.m. on May 4th and May 5th at 7:35 a.m. as they will be lined up to process into Mass.

Religious Education and Mass Participation

The Sunday Eucharist is the foundation and confirmation of all Christian practice, and for this reason the faithful are obligated to participate in the Mass on Sunday and other Holy Days of Obligation (Catechism of the Catholic Church 2180). The Church teaches that missing Mass on Sunday or a Holy Day of Obligation is a mortal sin. Consequently, our students are taught in the classroom that it is a mortal sin. It is damaging to children when their teachers explain that they are breaking their relationship with God by not attending Mass and then their parents do not regularly bring them to Mass. It confuses them. Moreover, in order for someone to feel a part of the parish community he or she must be regularly attending liturgies with fellow parishioners.

For these reasons, regular attendance at Mass on Sundays and Holy Days of Obligation at St. Agnes is a necessary part of our student's religious education. Parents are asked that they and their children regularly attend Mass weekly and on Holy Days of Obligation.

Banner

Throughout your child's preparation for the sacrament of First Eucharist, the goal is to provide experiences of unity and belonging. In preparation for the First Holy Communion (March 10th), each child with the help of parents at home will make a Banner. The completed Banner will be hung in the Gathering Space during the First Communion weekend.

The banner materials will be distributed at the Parent's meeting in January. Please bring the completed banner to the Retreat on April 6, 2019.
