OUR SAVIOR CHRISTIAN ACADEMY CONNECTS STUDENTS WITH JESUS

Connecting children and families to Jesus while providing excellence in faith-based education is what Our Savior Christian Academy is all about. On August 14, a buzz of excitement filled the school halls as teachers, volunteers, staff and senior administration, welcomed 142 students on their first day of school. "Seeing all of the new families and faces means we have another opportunity to connect children to Jesus," stated Superintendent Pappert. It is a wonderful sight to see students gathering together to learn reading, writing and arithmetic along side the Word of our Lord. As stated by Lutheran Church Missouri Synod (LCMS) Missouri District President Lee Hagan, "As the child in a Lutheran school goes home and explains what they have learned in religion class, they are speaking about the one who is preeminent over everything. Whether at worship or in our witness, we have Christ in our hearts and on our lips,"

Jesus said, "Let the little children come to me and do not hinder them, for to such belongs the kingdom of heaven." (Matthew 19:14 ESV)

At Our Savior Christian Academy, having Christ on our hearts and on our lips is vital to our mission. Over the summer, seven teachers and staff started and completed the LCMS Colloquy Seminar program. This program prepares the Lutheran school teacher to carry the Lord's name and His teachings with faithfulness to the children and their families.

Congratulations to Mrs. Campbell, Mrs. Holan, Mrs. Layton, Mrs. Sapp, Mrs. Schrader, Mrs. Smith and Mrs. Hill for all your hard work. They join Mrs. Albright, Mrs. Clark, Mrs. Hall and Mr. Pappert who completed the Colloquy Seminar program in years previous.
