

Section 9 – Athletic Program Policies

9.004 – Player Guidelines

1. Practice Christian attitude toward coaches, teammates, officials, and opposing team:
  - A. Accepting coach's directions, corrections, or constructive criticism with positive attitudes;
  - B. Statements to teammates must be positive and up-building – no put-downs or yelling at teammates;
  - C. Accepting official's call without negative comments, "dirty or angry" looks, showing bad attitudes;
  - D. Recognizing the officials as the authority;
  - E. Respecting the talents of the opposing team. Showing good sportsmanship in winning or losing.
2. Attendance:
  - A. Excused absences would include illness or family emergencies. Any absence is unexcused if a phone call is not made to the coach prior to the start of the event;
  - B. Unexcused absences would include personal choice of not attending a practice or game to attend a different event. Results of unexcused absences will result in less playing time or no playing time the next game;
  - C. Team players must attend all games in a tournament; not just one or two.
3. Demonstrate a willingness to learn, improve, and do your best at all times.
4. Maintain self-control and respect for facilities:
  - A. Any team player expelled from a game by officials will be subject to school discipline procedures and will not be allowed to play in the next game;
  - B. Any student's behavior which would result in disciplinary action during school hours will also be subject to disciplinary action from the school if it occurs during any school event, game, or practice, at home events or at a different school. This may include, but is not limited to, talking back to coaches or officials, profanity, disrespect for teammates or opposing team, destruction of property, etc.
5. It is required that players have a physical examination prior to the season.
6. Eligibility:
  - A. Poor academic performance will deem a player ineligible. This would result from a grade below 70% in both cumulative and weekly grades in any one subject;
  - B. Poor behavior may deem a player ineligible for a week. This would result from receiving two or more behavior slips in a week.
  - C. After a player has been ineligible three times, he/she is removed from the team.
