

2

"That is not true! This is my son!" cried the other.
 "She stole my baby! Her baby died in the night!"
 cried one.
 One day, two women came to King Solomon. One held an infant.

3

King Solomon called for a sword and said, "Lay the child down. Cut him in two. Then each will have a half."

King Solomon's Wisdom

1 Kings 3:16-28

Solomon was a good and very wise king. People came to him from all over when they had problems or disputes. King Solomon solved the disputes fairly.

"No! Don't kill him. Give the child to her," cried the boy's mother.

"I say, cut him in two," said the other woman.

Wise King Solomon instantly knew who was the mother.

4

1