

CHRISTIAN CHURCH (DISCIPLES OF CHRIST)

Barton Stone : Chose the name "Christians" based on Acts 11:26

Campbell: Chose "Disciples" - definition "learners" less pretentious

Two branches that left movement:

Churches of Christ - Non- Instrumental (New Testament did not require instruments in worship)

Independents - No involvement in church societies/conventions because New Testament did not describe them

Christian Church } The Provisional Design 1968
Church of Christ } Christian Church (Disciples of Christ)

We are only a part of one Christian Church to which all church bodies belong. Within that one church, we call ourselves Disciples of Christ.

Denominational Symbol -

Communion Cup - chalice centrality of the Lord's supper and cup of Christian self-giving

St. Andrews Cross - National cross of Scotland focuses attention on our Scots - Presbyterian roots

Red - For vitality, spirit, and sacrifice
