

Choices, Choices

Zacchaeus responded with joy and repented when he received the good news of Jesus Christ. But one person's good news may seem like another person's bad news. Read Matthew 19:16–26.

- 1. What did the person want who questioned Jesus?
 - 2. What did Jesus tell him?
 - 3. What was the response of the person?
 - 4. How did his response compare to the way Zacchaeus responded? Why do you think they responded differently?
 - 5. What did Jesus tell him to do then, to receive what he wanted?
 - 6. Why is it so necessary to put your possessions in second place in order to have eternal life with God?
 - 7. What did Jesus mean by saying, "For God all things are possible"?
-