

God told His people to build a tabernacle—a large, beautiful tent—as a house of worship. This could be moved from place to place.