

After forty years of wandering, God's people were ready to enter the promised land. Moses climbed to the top of a large mountain to see this beautiful land, and died there on the mountaintop. Deuteronomy 34