NOTE FROM OUR PASTOR

Thirteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time
July 2, 2023

Happy Fourth of July Everyone!

There are times that when we wake up in the morning, it would seem that our world is spinning at great speed, and we are confronted with troubles here, and troubles there; problems in our families, and problems in our workplace; and heavy stress here, and miseries there. While we are immersed in this unsettling drama of life, Jesus comes to us with these liberating words:

“COME TO ME,
ALL YOU WHO LABOR
AND ARE BURDENED,
AND I WILL GIVE YOU REST.”

Those are restorative and energizing WORDS that offer us the reason to live life to its fullest. They are SACRED WORDS emanating from the mouth and heart of a loving Lord. As we deepen our relationship with God and others, “words” are important. Without them our actions lose meaning. And without meaning we cannot live. Words can offer perspective, insight, understanding, and vision. Words can bring consolation, comfort, encouragement and hope. Words can take away fear, isolation, shame, and guilt. Words can reconcile, unite, forgive, and heal. Words can bring peace and joy, inner freedom and deep gratitude.

Words, in short, can carry love on their wings. A word of love can be the greatest act of love. That is because when our words become flesh in our lives and the lives of others, we can CHANGE THE WORLD. This week, what words of hope and consolation you will say to your family, friends, and neighbors? Please, let us try to become the LOVING and COMPASSIONATE CHRIST through our WORDS this week.

Jr. Vincent L. Parsons

As Father Vince reminded us...

... “don’t leave home without it!”
