CASH Quarterly

Fall 2014

From our President

Dear Friends,

We are happy to update you on all we've been doing this summer! As you know, CASH is a small organization with a HUGE mission. We serve victims of commercial sexual exploitation right here in our neighborhoods. Sexual exploitation takes many forms - sex trafficking, street and online prostitution, and survival sex to meet basic needs. With your ongoing help and support, our doors are open to meet women that need us the most. Over the summer, we served about 50 women each month at our Drop In Center in Oak Park. We have also been doing prevention work with transitioned aged youth and continue our strong partnership with women in treatment facilities. Every day we see women courageously step into their potential. We are very proud of them. Thank you for believing in them, too.

Warmly,

Cindy Stinson

Thank You!

A big thank you to the Kaiser Foundation for their generous support of our Safety and Wellness program. CASH helps women reduce harm in their lives - leading to improved physical and mental health. Small sustainable steps really do lead to transformation!

777 Organizations Ready to Fight

The Global Market Slavery Directory is now officially LIVE!

GLOBAL MODERN SLAVERY DIRECTORY

The first-of-its-kind directory is a growing, publically searchable database of over 770 organizations and hotlines working on human trafficking and forced labor around the world. CASH is one of the organizations taking action against trafficking in our communities. This is another way we are all working together to end exploitation. A Hard Hat and a Happy Heart

We are always happy when hard work leads to a new job for a woman in our program. Meaningful employment and a stable income are goals of our peer-led case management program.

On the Street

Our team is out every week meeting women that don't know about us or the programs and services that can help them leave a life on the streets. Unfortunately, we meet new women every single week that are trapped in a life of victimization. We purposely look for women that are hidden and too often marginalized. Our job is to let them know that help is available and that we care about their safety and well-being. We can always use travel sized shampoo, conditioner, and soap to help with our outreach efforts. Email us at info@cashsac.org if you would like to donate.

We help women craft their resumes, search for employment, and provide volunteer service so they can be prepared for their next job. We are indebted to employers that give women another chance. As a peer-led organization, we know that life experience can be a great asset. Hear from Yolanda, one of our peer-mentors, here.

Your gift helps us provide a safe, judgment free place for women in our community that need us the most. Thank You!
