Falling Upward: A Spirituality for the Second Half of Life

Saturday, September 28, 2019

Full Breakfast at 9:00 am

Program from 9:45 am to 12:45 pm

Fr. Richard Rohr, a Franciscan priest of the New Mexico Province, is a globally recognized author, speaker, teacher, and founder of the Center for Action and Contemplation in Albuquerque, New Mexico. Fr. Rohr's teaching is drawn from his own Franciscan tradition, the teachings of the mystics, the wisdom of the world's religions, and the spirituality of the Twelve Steps. One of his most popular books, Falling Upward: A Spirituality for the Two Halves of Life, will be the subject of our prayer and reflection. His discussion of the different characteristics of the first half of life and the second half of life and the tasks to be accomplished in each can be a helpful resource for all of us seeking a deeper spirituality.

Thomas Petriano, Ph.D, will lead this morning of reflection. He is Professor and Chair of the Religious Studies Department at St. Joseph's College. He teaches courses on World Religions, Faith and Film, and Belief in the Modern World.

Suggested Donation $20 per person.

All are welcome.
