Talk about inspiration! Wheelchair bodybuilding! Tell me your excuse for not working out today?"

Arnold Schwarzenegger

"Nick's presentation was absolutely amazing and inspiring from the moment he came on the stage, he captivated his audience from the first moment he entered the stage and never lost their interest. What an amazing story, you will just have to see it to believe it."

Randy Paul, Coordinator of TOPS Organization

"Heroes come in different shapes and sizes, but what they all have in common is a big heart. Nobody I know has a bigger heart than Nick Scott. The other thing all heroes have is an unshakeable desire to reach their goal. In that respect, Nick has risen to the rank of super hero. Not a fictional movie character, but a real live super hero. Somebody we can all believe in."

Barry Morrow, Oscar Award-Winning Screenwriter
