

National Association for the Advancement of Colored People
Temple Branch
P.O. Box 157 • Temple, Texas 76503

June 4, 2020
Temple NAACP Unit
Virginia, Leak, Education Committee
(254) 217-1920
vleak97177@aol.com

NEWS RELEASE

For Immediate Release

2020 Temple NAACP Unit Scholarship Awards

The Temple NAACP Unit is proud to present scholarships to five well-deserving graduates from Temple High School. Due to the COVID-19 Pandemic, we were not able to hold our scholarship banquet but still honored to acknowledge and award scholarships to further the education of aspiring students.

Our 2020 Temple NAACP Unit Scholarship Recipients are Vance Willis, Andrew Posey, Keyeria Walker, Aaliyah Gaines who received additional STEM Funds, and Velyncia Smith who received our Annual Roxie Moore Scholarship and additional STEM Funds.

Visit our website at www.templetxnaacp.org/senior_scholarship_2020 to see our awardees.

A special thank you to all donors who contributed toward the 2020 scholarships, you are greatly appreciated in our efforts for the youth in our community.

With your donations and our fundraising efforts throughout the year, we can provide scholarships to deserving students in pursuit of a degree in the career of their choice. We gladly accept donations throughout the year and appreciate your thoughtfulness. Donations can be mailed to Temple NAACP Unit 6229, P.O. Box 157, Temple, TX 76503 or electronically on our secure website at www.templetxnaacp.org/donations

NAACP Mission: The mission of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP) is to secure the political, educational, social, and economic equality of rights in order to eliminate race-based discrimination and ensure the health and well-being of all persons.