JOURNAL DRIVE CLOSSES 'OVER THE TOP'

The 1968 Journal Drive drew to a close on the First of May with an all time high in ads sold. The record smashing $54,243 exceeded even the 1967 record of $40,000 and was made up of 874 individual ads.

"This means people were working. You don't bring in close to 900 ads by playing tennis," Journal chairman Joe Esses said. He praised the energetic committee, and especially his two Co-chairman, Sonny Gindi and Harry A. Tawil, for "not relaxing a second, from the word go right down to the finish line."

"The Success of the Journal drive means that the third floor will be open and ready for occupancy this coming September, and will enable the Yeshivah to enroll an additional 70 children," Mr. Esses concluded.

"In September 1967," Rabbi Greenes added "it broke all our hearts when we had to turn away 70 lovely, eager community children, who were forced to enroll in Public Schools or outside Yeshivot."

JOE ESSES LAUDED

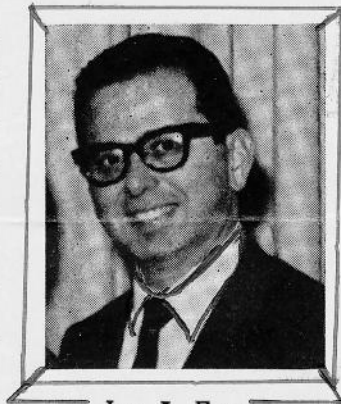

In assessing the significance of the drive's success, Henry Shalom, Chairman of the Construction Committee, and Sonny Gindi, Treasurer, and Chairman of the Finance Committee, said that "its ramifications are far more important than the immediate availability of $50,000 towards completion of the third floor. It proves a point; that if we deliver quality and a genuine, sound program of growth, the community will back it with meaningful support, not merely tokenism."

"One thing is certain," they added, "without the leadership of Joe Esses, who inspired every committeeman and worker, and never allowed the campaign to pale, we could not have converted all these positive factors into success." Upon which Rabbi Greenes commented "Rarely does one find in a layman, the ability, instinct and subtle 'feel' for campaigning which it takes the professional many years to develop. Joe Esses is such a gifted layman."

In closing the campaign, the Journal workers were unanimous in their praise for the meticulous and precise work done

SUMMER BRADLEY CLASSES

Mr. Harry S. Tawil announced that he and his committee have once again arranged boys classes in Bradley for the summer.

In addition to the classes, shaharit services will be held every morning and breakfast will be served to all those attending Services.

Please, if interested, register your son with either Rabbi Bitton at the Magen David Yeshivah, Rabbi Hecht at the Shaare Zion, Rabbi Lieberman at the Beth Torah or Rabbi Maslaton at the Ahi Ezer, or Harry Tawil at Br. 9-0527; Es. 6-8018. It is hoped that parents will take advantage of this opportunity to give their sons a few hours of constructive study during the summer.

Registration Report

Mr. Isaac Gindi, Registration chairman announced that a careful study of the new registrants at the Yeshivah shows a tremendous upswing in the amount of girls enrolling in the past three years. "Since the parallel curricula were devised to meet the specific educational needs of the boys and girls in special subject matter," he said.

Rabbi Sholom Himmel pointed out that the afternoon Nursery classes (1-4 PM) are closed, and no applications will be accepted, except on waiting list. "There are only few openings for the morning Nursery class (9 AM to 12 Noon), and even these are filling up fast. Those interested are urged to call for an application at once at 236-5905," Rabbi Himmel added.

At other admission levels Mr. Gindi reports that our two Kindergarten groups are already fully subscribed to, a third Kindergarten may be opened, should there be enough applicants.

The three 1st grade groups are swiftly closing, and here, too, delay is unwise inasmuch as "all Pre-school classes must be located on the main floor Pre-school center, we will be unable to open any additional classes no matter how many requests come in at a later date. Its first come first served." He said.

"It looks like we will grow to 525 students, an increase of more than 100 students," Gindi concluded.

If past years are any indication, the boys all love the class and attend enthusiastically.

HISTORIC QUOTES

For years the secularist Jewish Organizations have opposed Jewish Parochial Schools, or Day schools, as they now prefer to call them. This opposition was both covert and overt, going back to the infamous Albany battles of the 1930's when they attempted to force Yeshivot to become afternoon Talmud Torahs by instigating the authorities against them as the schools of a small sect of ultra-orthodox "parochial" Jews.

It's a pleasure to see the comments now coming from erstwhile opponents, in the nature of בעל כרחו יֵעָנֶה אָמֵן.

American Association for Jewish Education: The average 9 year old Day School pupil does better on AAJE administered tests in Hebrew, Jewish Law, and Jewish History than the average 13 year old Hebrew school pupil.

B'nai Brith Magazine: There is only one effective antidote against "Jewish self-hatred" and "Jewish by anti-Semitism" — a thorough Jewish education preferably of the intensive type dispensed in the Jewish Day School.

American Jewish Congress Weekly Magazine: Day School graduates are as fully integrated into American life as the Jewish graduates of the public school system. There are no juvenile delinquents in the Jewish Day School; their scholastic record is on the average better than the scholastic record of public school children in the secular studies and their graduates now occupy prominent places in the economic, political and educational life of America.

FROM THE DESK OF THE PRINCIPALS

by Rabbi David Bitton by Mrs. Frieda R. Shprentz

Our Yeshiva is climbing the ladder of success in Education as well as in physical facilities.

Our Torah studies, broadened at the beginning of the term, includes many added subjects.

The course of the general studies was designed in accordance with the requirements of the Board of Education of New York City, both in contents and methods, under the competent and devoted English Principal, Mrs. Frieda Shprentz.

The Nursery meets all the requirements of a good school. The room is spacious, well lighted and well ventilated. The equipment and material were selected to meet the children's needs; for creative and imaginative play, as well as vigorous living. It is really amazing to see how much the children learned during the past nine months; something which definitely will help them in their kindergarten and first grade.

The special girl's class is doing remarkably well both in arts and crafts and the special Seminar type lessons; in the conduct of a real and happy Jewish home.

We are proud of our new building and facilities, but we are prouder still of the hard work and vision of the committee under the guidance of our beloved president, Mr. Leo Esses, who had faith in our future and whose efforts and sacrifices made our new floor possible for the benefit of our children.

Rabbi Jay Kaufman, (formerly Vice President of the American Reform Congregations, now Executive Vice President, Bnai Brith) Rabbi Alexander Schindler, Director of Hebrew Education for the Reform Temples: Graduates of the Day Schools are moving into ranking positions in the Jewish community and they are enriching Jewish religious life. The program of these schools should be the concern of the total Jewish community, meriting its material support.

Dr. Joachim Prinz — Past President, American Jewish Congress: The Day Schools are playing a vital role in combatting Jewish indifference, Jewish ignorance and Jewish illiteracy.

R. M. G.

Joyful, creative experiences, are helping the boys and girls of Magen David Yeshivah develop interests and skills in music, science, and art. The school provides these experiences during school hours for the younger children and in after school clubs for the older ones.

You have read in this bulletin a little about the Science Fair, the Violin Club and the playing of recorders by the children in the third grade. Now the children of the second grade are also making music on recorders. (Recorders, you will remember, are flute-like instruments.)

In addition, we now have an Art Club. Here the children are taught how to look at and really see the beauty that is around them and to express themselves creatively through art. The children have done some lovely color drawings and collages.

When the children in the Art Club learned recently of the 25th Annual Art Exhibit sponsored by the Jewish Education Committee, they worked cooperatively on a group project and produced a beautiful collage. This collage was submitted to the exhibit and was on view at the Jewish Education Committee, in Manhattan.

We look to you, the parents, for cooperation in encouraging and stimulating the children towards greater endeavor.

RAHAMIM HARARI WINS

Raymond Harari, eighth grade, was First Place winner of our school's Spelling Bee. This entitled him to take part in a City wide competition.

This month the psychologists column will not appear.

Starting with the next issue, Dr. Sternlicht will answer questions or advise on problems put to him by our readers. Please address your question to Dr. Sternlicht, c/o Magen David Yeshivah and your letter will be answered in this column.

We hope our readers will take advantage of this opportunity to consult our psychologist on any problems relating to children.

DIRECTOR'S COLUMN

by Rabbi Moshe Greenes

□ Parents of prospective students had best act fast. Most classes are already closed, and the ones still open are rapidly filling out. While on the subject, sincere thanks to Rabbi Sholom Himmel for the efficient manner in which he organized our new registration procedures. Its a pleasure to observe an expert at work.

□ Elsewhere in this issue you will read of the Survey of our school being conducted by Professor William Brickman, one of the leading, and possibly the leading name in Education in America and Europe.

As a personal aside, Professor Brickman was the teacher of Rabbi Himmel and myself during our High School days, (we were classmates). He was the darling of the school. The kids loved him and never, never missed his class. He was also quite an athlete, and sported a fierce, coal black Balkan Bandit mustache which, together with terrifying grimaces, frightened opposing pitchers into a nervous state known clinically as "the shakes." It was therefore rumored that his athletic ability lie in his mustache, "shave it and you have an ordinary mortal at bat," they said. Personally, I always considered such talk as natural jealousy among athletes, the truth being that his prowess lie in the ferocious faces.

□ With another school year drawing to a close — this is the final Bulletin until September — I must say, with all humility, that never in the history of Yeshivot in this country — as far as I remember — was there an institution that underwent such a vast, meaningful program of planned academic and physical change as did Magen David in the last two years.

Allow me to take you into my confidence. What has happened is only the beginning; Stage I. Your Executive Committee, headed by our tireless President, Leo Esses, has a whole series of additional programs planned for the years ahead. May G'd grant him, and all of us, the courage and wisdom to keep on going מִיְהוֹרָה אֶל הַיָּלָה — from height to height.

Best wishes and blessings for a happy, healthy, and rewarding summer — materially and spiritually — to all.

Professor Brickman Surveys Yeshivah

The Executive Committee of Magen David Yeshivah voted earlier this year to invite a leading American educator, one who would be universally regarded as an unquestioned authority, to survey "every aspect" of our Secular Studies Department.

"It is a basic policy of this committee," explained Leo Esses, Yeshivah President, "to conduct the Yeshivah's affairs on the basis of the best professional advice we can secure, rather than what this person claims to have been told by a learned cousin, or that child's mother read in a magazine article. If the community is entrusting us to spend their funds," Esses continued, "we must view ourselves as trustees who are duty bound to spend the funds prudently and in a manner that will produce the maximum return per dollar."

The School's Board of Education, of which Mr. Leon Sutton is chairman and Mr. Edward Menaged co-chairman for the Secular Studies Department, therefore decided, in conjunction with Mrs. Frieda Shprentz, to invite an evaluation of the school's curriculum, enrollment and promotion policies, testing materials, textbooks, staff, record keeping, teacher recruitment procedures, and every other aspect of the school.

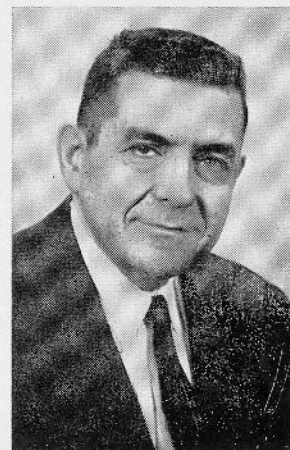

Chosen for this survey, by a Committee headed by Ralph Tawil, was Dr. William Brickman, Professor of Educational History and Comparative Education, Graduate School of Education, University of Pennsylvania.

Professor Brickman is also the editor of the highly regarded educational periodical, School and Society, and has been visiting Professor at Columbia University, University of California, University of Illinois, University of Pittsburgh, Yeshivah University, University of Hamburg, Germany, University of Toledo, Spain, and many other American and Foreign Universities.

As President of the Comparative Education Society, he directed school visit programs for American and foreign Professors of Education in Europe South America, U.S.S.R., the Far East, and Africa.

Dr. Brickman has also been invited to contribute articles to Encyclopedia Britannica, Encyclopedia American, Encyclopedia of Educational research, and many journals and periodicals, both professional and popular, too numerous to mention here. Suffice it say that his works were translated into Spanish, Italian, Japanese, Arabic, Hebrew, Danish, and other languages.

School surveys are one of Dr. Brickman's specialties, having conducted surveys in Public and Parochial Schools, including Jewish day schols, in Massachusetts, Conn., N.Y., N.J., Maryland, Penn., Ohio, Illinois, Minn., Mo., Colo., Calif., and Fla.; also in Mexico, Argentina, Peru, Canada, England, Denmark, Russia, Israel, and South Africa. Dr. Brickman is also an official consultant to State

Prof. W. W. Brickman

Department of Education of Maryland, Oregon, Penn., and the Bureau of Research of the U.S. Office of Education.

Dr. Brickman spent four full days in the school during May, sitting in on classes, examining the children's work, the tests and textbooks used, the gradings and marking systems, and interviewing the schools officials. In addition he spent two entire evenings consulting with the Education Committee and with the Full Board, "when Dr. Brickman sends us his findings and recommendations," Leo Esses concluded, "we know we will be steering the school on a straight and true course, it being decided that the school will follow his advice as the most competent available to us."

RABBI GREENES LECTURES AT TEACHERS INSTITUTE

Dr. Joseph Kaminetzky, National Director of Torah Umesorah, announced earlier this month that Magen David Director, Rabbi Moshe Greenes, has been invited as Guest Lecturer by Teachers Institute for the Summer, 1968, program.

The Institute conducts in-service teacher-training seminars for Yeshivah teachers who wish to take advanced courses and credits.

Rabbi Greenes will deliver four two-hour lectures, all during July, dealing with teaching, at the Elementary and Secondary level, of the following subjects:

History: The Joshua Era — conquest and settlement.

The Historic Movements of the 19th Century.

Teaching Humash — Communicating ethical values to the middle grades.

Dr. Zvi Shurin, Consultant to the program, said he anticipates over-enrollment for those courses Rabbi Greenes is slated to teach.

P. T. A. REPORT

OPEN LETTER TO PTA MEMBERS

Dear Parents:

It is with a great deal of pride and satisfaction that we review this past year's efforts.

Beginning with our Membership Tea early in September when we introduced Rabbi Himmel to our members for the first time, up through and including the Annual Teacher Recognition Dinner, we received good cooperation from our members. Unfortunately a few parents still on the sidelines and do not participate in our programs actively, but as long as their passive support is there, we can keep forging ahead.

A brief summary of our program includes:

Membership Tea; Sukkoth meeting in the Sukkah; Book Fair & Hanukkah table; Concert at Brooklyn College; Cake Sale; Open Meeting with psychologist Dr. M. Sternlicht; Purim Festival; Meeting on Camping; Passover sale of Candies; Teacher's Recognition Dinner.

PTA has bought Sporting Equipment for the children and ordered outdoor Nursery play equipment. It sponsors the Principals to the national Torah Umesorah convention; it provides help in the lunchroom, offices and library; it aids teachers on trips and special parties or affairs; it meets regularly with the Principals and MDY Board to discuss pertinent topics on improving the school.

Our last important function for this year is the Teachers Recognition Dinner. In appreciation of their love and attention to our children, PTA is happy to honor them with this special affair.

We take this opportunity to publicly thank the PTA Executive Board which has been the backbone of this organization and has worked so diligently on its aims:

Vice-Presidents: Phyllis Shams, Selma Cohen, Molly Cohen — Recording Secretary: Julie Cohen — Corresponding Secretary: Claire Salem — Treasurer & Membership: Claire Shamah, Anita Shweky — Fundraising: Claire Shweky — Chairman Concert: Shelley Rahmey — Chairman Book Fair: Molly Cohen — Chairman Purim & Passover Candies: Rochelle Mizrahi.

Publicity: Shirley Hanon, Sydelle Shamah — Class Mothers: Ruth Shweky — Grievance: Evelyn Rahmey — Lunchroom: Miriam Abady, Ceil Tobias — Nostress: Odette Harari, Nina Tawil, Frieda Tawil — Bulletin: Selma Cohen, Verna Moel, Adele Zetooncy.

Many other wonderful women have come forward to help whenever asked. This is so appreciated and welcomed. We hope that next term our membership will increase and that many more mothers will volunteer their ideas and plans to make PTA even more effective.

Sincerely,
T. Goldman, Pres.

LUNCHROOM RUNNING SMOOTHLY

Thanks to the mothers who come in conscientiously, day in day out, to help serve the students, the lunchroom is running smoothly and efficiently.

The mothers, all volunteers of the P.T.A., come in one day a week for a month to assist Mrs. Schiffman and her staff. They place the food before the children help pass trays, and check to see that each child is eating properly. They will provide sandwiches if a child does not like the cooked dish of the day.

Many of them are amazed at the quantity of food a child will eat. Would you believe a boy could eat seven portions of spaghetti or four salami sandwiches? Mothers are told to discourage such excesses because it is not good for the child. There is sufficient food for everyone but sometimes we have to guard against "eyes bigger than stomachs."

In case a child cannot eat a particular dish because of allergy or dislike, sandwiches are available. In addition, parents should send a note to Mrs. Schiffman outlining the child's food problems. She will take it from there. She is a trained nutritionist and will see to it that the child gets a balanced meal.

Particular appreciation is given to Mrs. Phyllis Shams, Lunchroom Chairman, who supervises the volunteers and makes sure there is always someone there.

The following volunteers have been working in the lunchroom this season.

Miriam Abady, Rae Bibi, Adele Zetooncy, Paulette Grazi, Verna Moel, Grace Bigio, Annette Tawil, Eva Tawil, Joyce Kasson, Nina Esses, Frieda Tawil, Rochelle Mizrahi, Julie Cohen, Esther Zeller, Epelyn Rahmey, Nina Tawil, Renna Abadi, Sally Mishaan, Margaret Mishaan, Renne Tawil, Sylvia Shalom.

Boy Scouts

by Ralph Setton

Scoutmaster, Troop 901 B. S. A.

A recent editorial in "Pravda" the official Russian Government newspaper, read as follows: "An organization known as 'The Boy Scouts of America' is turning American youngsters into hostile, war mongering, imperialists. Every boy is forced into joining and is trained to be a master of all forms of espionage, violence and germ warfare, and quickly becomes a tool of the ruthless U.S. Government."

"The most deceitful ritual is the shameful 'court of honor.' Where the young warmongers are decorated with so-called 'merit badges.' It is here they receive awards for their work in such insidious fields as 'swimming' (underwater demolition), 'pathfinding' (counter-espionage), & 'pioneering' (exploitation of underdeveloped nations)."

Why are the Soviets so worried about the Boy Scouts? Because of the Scout law, which teaches "a Scout is... trustworthy, loyal, helpful, friendly, courteous, kind, obedient, cheerful, thrifty, brave, clean, reverent." A Scout promises on his honor he will do his best, to do his duty to G-d and country. He must do a good turn daily. Every principle of this promise and law is contrary to the teachings of the Soviets.

Our boys all around us are the makers of history and the builders of tomorrow. Scouting may have some part in guiding them up the trail to the "highroad" of constructive citizenship.

We meet every Monday night at the Shaare Zion Congregation, 2030 Ocean Parkway. If your son is between the ages of 8 and 18 we'd like to talk "Scouting" with him.

RALPH SETTON
336-6550

P.S. A message to you, boys! What a program we have this summer in Brooklyn! Swimming, camping, fishing, archery, rifle shooting and many more activities. Let's shake hands!

CITIZENS RALLY

A very well-attended Mass Rally was held at Shaare Zion re. demands for more adequate police protection for our neighborhoods. The overflow crowd of 1000 men and women heard speakers from the Mayor's office; Boro Pres. Abe Stark's office; Congressman Bert Podell; State Senator Albert Lewis; Assemblyman Leonard Simon and Deputy Chief Inspector Alfred Anger of the Police Dept.; discuss various aspects of the problem.

It was a heated and provocative meeting and as a direct result a group of civic-minded people have met together to form a new committee under the name "Civic Action Committee of Sephardic Community of Brooklyn."

The Rabbis of each congregation are Honorary Chairmen. The following men are on the committee:

Chairman: Dave E. Cohen.

Co-Chairmen: Joseph Barnathan of Ahava V'ahba Cong.; Hy Cohen of Ahi Ezer Cong.; Isidore Shamah of Cong. Beth Torah; Al Dweck of Magen David of Ocean Parkway.

Secretaries: Joe Heiney, Recording; Bob Shamosh, Corresponding.

Treasurer: Ed. Dweck.

It was stressed that the C.A.C. would devote itself to such area problem as police protection, crime prevention, street lighting, etc., Also, the need to keep Coney Island Hospital, the 61st Precinct station on Avenue U and the 70th Pct. on Avenue J from being closed, as proposed by the Lindsey Administration.

Three sub-committees were established: Crime prevention — to work with the Police Dept. as well as private agencies; Liaison — to work with other synagogues, churches, public schools, etc. in the community; Public Relations — to keep the public informed of the activities and possible courses of action to be followed by the public, should the committees not be satisfied with the action of the city officials.

Since our community encompasses an area from approx. Ave. I to Ave. X between Coney Island Ave. and McDonald Ave., as well as the Bay Parkway area, it comprises a sizeable number of people — at least 25,000. With this large number and all working together for the community, the C.A.C. can be politically influential in achieving its goals, if we are united and determined. Men and women are needed to work on these committees. To sign up contact Chairman David E. Cohen or the Rabbi of your Congregation.

Chief Rabbi Nissim Visits Community

Our community is, thank G-d, blessed with many distinguished visitors from abroad. Our reputation as a community committed to Torah and Tradition is such that the leading Rabbis and Seminary heads of the Sephardic communities in Israel, Europe, and the near East almost always honor us with a visit.

Our recent visitor, Israel's Chief Rabbi Yishak Nissim, however, stands out even among so illustrious a group. The impression he left on us, and the warm, spontaneous reception our people extended him will last with us and, hopefully, with the Chief Rabbi, for a long, long time.

The Rabbi's plane arrived at Kennedy Airport at 6 P.M. and was met by a caravan of busses, chartered especially for the occasion, carrying hundreds of Magen David youngsters who gave him a rousing welcome as he walked through customs and into the Terminal. If the airport personnel did not know until then that the Sephardic Chief Rabbi had just arrived, they found out soon enough as our Yeshivah youngsters, reinforced by the Shaare Zion Talmud Torah pupils and the Ahi-Ezer pupils, let go with an old fashion Baruch Habbah.

A few days later the adult community conducted one of the greatest receptions in our history, at Shaare Zion Congregation. The doors to the main synagogue were closed a half hour before the program started, even the S.R.O. being occupied. People kept flocking in on foot and by car all evening long.

One of the policemen on the beat asked your reporter as he approached the synagogue "what's up? is it Yom Kippur? — no it can't be, you just had the Matza Holiday. What are you giving away to draw such a crowd on a week day evening?" It was with pride that I told him "we're giving away a chance to see and hear our Chief Rabbi from Jerusalem." I was happy to note that the patrolman looked on me with respect as I hurried up the block. When I emerged from the synagogue, almost three hours later, I recognized him standing on a milk crate trying to catch a glimpse of the Rabbi as he was being led into a waiting car, surrounded by hundreds of our congregants.

The reception program started with a beautiful Arbit, led by Hazan Elnadav and was followed by stirring messages by Rabbi Jacob Kassin, Rabbi Abraham Hecht, President Isaac Tawil, and an unusually well received message by Rabbi Matloub Abadi, which was characterized by subtle wit and serious insights.

The Highlight of the evening was the address of the Chief Rabbi. Generally, he spoke with a strong, firm voice, except when speaking of Jerusalem. Then his voice would waver, obviously overcome by the emotions in his heart.

Rishon L'Zion

He aroused great longings for the Holy Land in all his listeners, speaking with almost poetic beauty.

Yes, the Chief Rabbi's visit is one this community will never forget.

SPOTLIGHT ON PEOPLE

ALUMNI OF THE MONTH

Mark Haddad

A great honor has been bestowed upon an alumnus of Magen David Yeshivah. Mark Haddad, 17 years of age, now living in Miami, Fla., has just been elected Southeast Regional President of the United Synagogue Youth at elections held in Jacksonville, Fla. The Region encompasses congregations from ten states in the Southeast.

There was quite an active campaign before elections. The news was given to his family at 1:00 a.m., when they were awakened by a long-distance call from Jacksonville to advise them that Mark was the duly-elected President!

Mark is the son of Margie (Labaton) and Frank Haddad, of Brooklyn. He attended Magen David Yeshivah until his family moved to Florida where he continued his Torah education at the Hebrew Academy of Greater Miami, the Harold Wolk Religious School, the Hebrew H.S. of Greater Miami and the pre-college class in 1967/8.

Mark is an outstanding, self-propelled young man, true to the teachings of Torah and Judaism inculcated in him from the very beginning by his parents and teachers at Magen David Yeshivah.

Incidentally, Mark's mother, Margie, is well known here as the writer of the "Hi People!" column so eagerly read in the original Community, or "Victory," Bulletin put out during the war years.

Personality of the Month

There is a name prominently displayed all over this community on billboards, posters and on sound trucks and that is David Eliyahu Cohen. Mr. Cohen is running in the Democratic primary elections to be held June 18th, for State Committeeman. A Committeeman is an important part of "grass-roots" politics, or politics on the local level, in that he votes for the delegates (or goes himself) to the national party convention which nominates a Presidential ticket. As yet, Dave is uncommitted as to who he prefers on the Democratic line but he has taken a survey of the opinion of the voters of his district and will act with that in mind.

Dave Cohen is the first of our people to become involved in local politics and indeed, along with Horseback Riding, Politics is a hobby of his. He was born here in Brooklyn in 1926, attended Lafayette H. S., the Magen David Talmud Torah, and has just enrolled his youngest daughter in Magen David Yeshivah.

He likes to be active in community affairs and was co-chairman of the Shaare Zion Bldg.

David E. Cohen

Committee and secretary there for nine years. He is active in the Israel Bond drive and U. J. A. He is active now on the new Civic Action Committee and hopes to see it a true "action" group.

Personality of the Month

There is a name prominently displayed all over this community on billboards, posters and on sound trucks and that is David Eliyahu Cohen. Mr. Cohen is running in the Democratic primary elections to be held June 18th, for State Committeeman. A Committeeman is an important part of "grass-roots" politics, or politics on the local level, in that he votes for the delegates (or goes himself) to the national party convention which nominates a Presidential ticket. As yet, Dave is uncommitted as to who he prefers on the Democratic line but he has taken a survey of the opinion of the voters of his district and will act with that in mind.

Dave Cohen is the first of our people to become involved in local politics and indeed, along with Horseback Riding, Politics is a hobby of his. He was born here in Brooklyn in 1926, attended Lafayette H. S., the Magen David Talmud Torah, and has just enrolled his youngest daughter in Magen David Yeshivah.

He likes to be active in community affairs and was co-chairman of the Shaare Zion Bldg.

David E. Cohen

Committee and secretary there for nine years. He is active in the Israel Bond drive and U. J. A. He is active now on the new Civic Action Committee and hopes to see it a true "action" group.

INQUIRING REPORTER

Question asked of the 8th Graders. "What are your plans after leaving MDY?"

Robert Levy: After graduating I hope to go to a yeshivah high school. My ambition is to be a writer.

Isaac Shamah: I plan to go to Lincoln High School. I will miss MDY and my eighth grade buddies. I will be sorry I cannot enjoy the new activities and programs of MDY. Too bad they didn't start a few years ago.

San Sutton and Solomon Mizrahi have plans to continue their education at Mirrer Yeshivah High.

James Haber: I plan to go to Flatbush Yeshivah to continue my Hebrew education. I plan to go to college and become an architectural engineer.

Eddie Schwecky: Plans to go to a yeshiva high school.

David Shabo: I plan to continue my learning at Lincoln High School. My ambition is to go to college and study law.

David Anteby: After graduating from MDY I plan to continue my studies at Stuyvesant High School. I'm going to major in math.

Isaac Zagha: I passed the test for Brooklyn Tech, but as I want to continue my Torah education I plan to go to Mirrer Yeshivah. I hope to go to college and study to be a scientist.

Morey Becker: I also passed the test for Brooklyn Tech, but I'm undecided as to where I'll go to high school, perhaps Yeshivah.

David Ashear: I'm going to Lincoln High School, although I shall continue my Hebrew education. I will always remember Magen David where for eight years I was taught by dedicated teachers. They were happy years.

Isaac Yedid: Sums up the sentiments of his fellow classmates when he writes why he liked MDY. "This school is not like other schools, this is a community school. All the pupils are like one big family. I'm proud of the way MDY is growing, and getting better and better."

LAG B'OMER HADLAKAH

The annual Lag B'Omer Hadlakah and celebration sponsored by Magen David Yeshivah drew a record week-day attendance of four hundred men and women.

The affair, chaired by Ralph Tawil and Mrs. Nat Gindi, struck a beautiful balance between the sacred character of the evening and its festive side. It is a compliment to the ladies and gentlemen who planned the evening that they were able to master that elusive quality, which so often finds such occasions drawn to one pole or the other.

The entertainment featured our own Hazanim, headed by David Franco, singing Bar Yohai and other Pizmonim accompanied by our Syrian Orchestra.

There were two addresses, one by Ralph Tawil, who pointed out that it is appropriate that our Yeshivah conduct the Bar Yohai's celebration because both stand for stubborn Torah study and observance in a period when the dominant culture is so anti torah — both anti — observance and anti-study.

Rabbi Hecht asked the assembled to draw inspiration from the life of Bar Yohai and his Son Elazar, who preferred to live in isolation rather than abandon their ties to Torah and Missvot.

The evening was climaxed by the sale of the Hadlakot, conducted by Charles Serouya, who did a masterful job at it.

The proceeds of the sale, all turned over to the Yeshivah, was $6,000.

TEENAGE TIDBITS

The secrets out! Everybody knows... Yes, the truth of the secret M.O.O.N. expedition is now known by everyone!!

So I might as well give you the full details. On May 32, 200 girls & boys, from the ages of 14½ to 20¼, will meet in front of Shaare Zion at 5:39 in the morning. Make sure to be there early, since the ship will be leaving at that time, & it's first come, first serve basis. Bring plenty of food for 6-7 days, since there will be no kosher facilities up there on the moon. Also, don't forget stationary & stamps, so you can write to your favorite friends back on earth.

What? You're scared to go! You want to back out!? Your looking for a great time, but not as dangerous as that? Well, don't just sit there, go to the heads of the social committee & scream! Sound off & tell them what you want! Maybe then you wouldn't have to settle for the trip to the moon!!!

WHY IS IT?

asks philosopher Hallutha Nathan Hallebi, that when invited to a party, its the woman who wails the loudest, "I haven't got a thing to wear", who spends the longest time in front of the closet deciding what to wear.

GOLDEN AGE CLUB

The Golden Age Club of Cong. Shaari Zion invites our Senior Citizens to drop in any afternoon, Monday to Thursday in the Terrace Room. Planned activities and programs ensure interesting afternoons.

Those seniors who have attended these sessions are unanimous in their praise for the Project.

"It certainly is a boon for our Golden Agers," said Bulletin Editor Tunee Goldman "more Power to all who work on it."

New Building Plans under Discussion:

The Shaare Zion Congregation Executive Committee has been meeting with architects these past few weeks in an intensive effort to start the ball rolling on the new building.

Mr. Isaac Tawil, President, said — "the urgent need of the hour is a center large enough to accommodate the growing needs of our young and our old. We are concentrating major efforts towards the realization of this goal. We hope to be in a position to bring some tangible results to the attention of the community in the near future."

At a general meeting of the congregation, the community authorized the committee to negotiate for the purchase of additional property on which to build the planned center. One of the newly acquired buildings is already being used to provide much needed additional classroom space for the Girls School. It will be used further for Sabbath services and classrooms for religious studies for the Young Adults.

CONG. MAGEN DAVID OF OCEAN PARKWAY

With our season almost at an end we take this opportunity to thank all our ladies who have devoted many hours to the organization.

We are proud of the wonderful programs we put on during the year. We are proud of having the Community's support.

We appreciate all that the ladies of the Community are doing to help us build and thrive.
