

CAIRNS SAINTS FOOTBALL AND NETBALL CLUB MATCH DAY OFFICIALS AND JUNIOR PLAYER SUPERVISION

Purpose

The Cairns Saints Australian Football and Netball Club will ensure the following rules and regulations pertaining to the required number of match day officials and player supervision are in place for all junior matches that occur at the club's home grounds at Griffiths Park as well as games that are away from the club. This ensures that the club is providing all junior players and junior members of the club a duty of care and adequate supervision at all times whilst training, playing and attending club related functions for club related purposes.

It is a requirement of the Cairns Saints Australian Football and Netball Club that all junior players and junior members have a parent and/or guardian present for a required time either before, during or after training, games and club related functions and activities.

Match day officials at club games:

- There will be a minimum of 3 Junior Committee Members at all home games conducted on a Sunday at Griffiths Park.
- There will be a minimum of 2 Junior Committee Members at all Colts home games conducted on a Saturday at Griffiths Park.
- There will be a minimum of 1 Junior Committee Member at all general and/or away games conducted at various locations around Cairns.

Player supervision at club games:

- A minimum of 1 club official (coach, parent, member, team manager) to be at the grounds 1 hour prior to the commencement of the game.
- A minimum of 1 club official (coach, parent, member, team manager) to be at the grounds until all junior players and junior members have been collected by their parent and/or guardian.
