

RESOLUTION SUPPORTING C.I.S.D. BOND ELECTION

WHEREAS, the Town of Woodloch is interested in the proper and adequate education of its citizens in order to participate to the fullest extent possible in a democratic government.

WHEREAS, our local school system is becoming overcrowded due to the increase in population around Woodloch, and

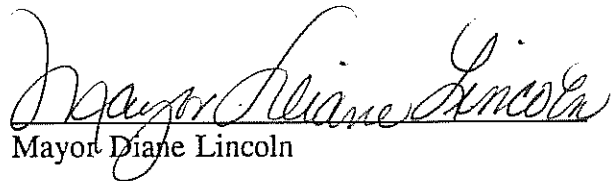

WHEREAS, adequate participation in education is hindered by overcrowded education facilities, and

WHEREAS, Conroe Independent School District has done an extensive study utilizing citizens throughout the School District to determine the needs of this School District over the next several years and

WHEREAS, the Board of Trustees of Conroe Independent School District after reviewing recommendations from the Citizens Committee has called for a School Bond Election for 85.8 million dollars to be presented to the voters of this community,

THEREFORE, the City Council of the Town of Woodloch hereby commends Conroe Independent School District for its foresight in the preparation of this School Bond Election and recommends to the citizens of Woodloch to support for this School Bond Issue.

Above Resolution passed by the City Council on September 13th, 1994.
