

Priscilla Rivers, Esquire

---

Priscilla grew up in Puerto Rico and moved to Florida in 2000. Priscilla concentrates her practice in the area of civil and commercial litigation, representing individuals, as well as entities.

Prior to Cipparone & Cipparone, Priscilla worked as an Assistant Public Defender for the Ninth Judicial Circuit in Orlando, Florida, where she gained valuable trial experience as a criminal defense attorney, and at Shuffield, Lowman, and Wilson, P.A., where she represented clients in civil and commercial litigation matters.

Priscilla is a member of the Florida Bar, the United States District Court for the Middle District of Florida, the United States District Court for the Southern District of Florida, the United States Court of Appeals for the Eleventh Circuit, and the Orange County Bar Association.

Priscilla graduated from Barry University in Miami, Florida, with dual degrees in Political Science and Philosophy.

She earned her Juris Doctor, magna cum laude, from Barry University's Dwayne O. Andreas School of Law, where she received book awards recognizing her as the highest-ranked student in Trial Advocacy, Opinion and Scientific Evidence, Civil Procedure I, and Entertainment Law.

Priscilla was also a top Moot Court National Competitor and received the Moot Court Honors Board Outstanding Graduate Award.