

Reports

At Little Darlings Child Care Centre we believe in working with families to benefit the child so communication is important in regards to your child's development.

Our qualified teachers provide ½ yearly and yearly reports for your child so you can have a record of their development and have the opportunity to discuss in detail with your child's care giver their development.