NEWS FROM PPC

News from the Interim:

Psalm 100:

¹ Make a joyful noise to the LORD, all the earth.
² *Serve the LORD with gladness;
 come into his presence with singing.*
³ Know that the LORD is God.
*It is he who made us, and we are his;
 we are his people and the sheep of his pasture.*
⁴ Enter his gates with thanksgiving and his courts with praise.
Give thanks to him; bless his name.
⁵ *For the LORD is good;
 his steadfast love endures forever and his faithfulness to all generations.*

Sunday, April 20, 2025, is Park Presbyterian Church’s 200th Birthday! Planning is just beginning. It wasn’t too long ago that I realized that April 20th falls on Easter. I had already asked Natalie about changing the Rummage Sale; the Rummage Sale will be April 10, 11, and 12th in 2025. Bill Doebler suggested a two-day celebration. I am going to suggest to the planning committee that they consider the two-day celebration with speakers, tours, and snacks on Saturday, April 26, 2025, and a special worship service and festivities on Sunday, April 27, 2025, to stay away from Easter weekend as many spend this time with their families.

We have begun sign-ups for the 200th CELEBRATION TEAM. It’s not too late to volunteer to help! As I said last month, it will take a village! We need people who might be interested in the following:

Invitations. This subcommittee would be responsible for coming up with a list—a “Homecoming” list—creating an invitation, finding addresses, and sending out the invitations.

Refreshments. This subcommittee would be responsible for soliciting and preparing the food—along with planning out where—in the lounge or downstairs—how many tables, chairs, party favors, table decorations, plates/cups/silverware, etc.

Artifacts. This subcommittee would be responsible for gathering historical information from around the church—there is a lot stored in different places—and collecting pictures, writings, articles, anything that represents the past 200 years—and planning a display—and possible tour of the church where some artifacts—glass windows—etc. can be found in the church. It was suggested that I talk with our Streaming Technician to see if he might put together a special video presentation...which would also fall under this category.

Worship Service/Speaker (s)—would this be one, or would you have a special worship service with a speaker (s) at different times leading up to April 26 and 27th? This subcommittee would make these decisions—and work with the pastor in putting together the worship service for the day-Sunday, April 27, 2025.

The Cornerstone. This subcommittee would work on fleshing out some ideas that the Bridgebuilder's Committee had a couple of years ago—creating a little area on the corner of PPC Property across from the Mailbox—with a stone—that Josh McCrossen has found and is ready to donate, engraved or with an engraved plaque siting the cornerstone passage—and possible brickwork with garden and engraved bricks with names on them.

I am going to be writing about different aspects of your history—most of it will be taken from parts of Robert L. Hoeltzel's book published in 1982. Still, there is history beyond this.

Installment #2: The Presbyterian Society of Newark-The Early Days

The Building:

For the first two and a half years, the church met between the old schoolhouse at Mud Mills and the schoolhouse at Newark. At a meeting on January 9, 1827, it was voted “that this Society build a house of Worship after the pattern of the Presbyterian Meeting House in Waterloo which is 60 feet long and 45 feet wide.” At the same meeting, it was noted “that this Society accept the site offered by Joseph Miller which is east and adjoining the public square.” Church records show that the Society paid $100 to Joseph Miller, a trustee of the church, and his wife Polly, through a deed executed April 9, 1828.

The corner stone was laid during the month of June 1827. It contained “The records of the church with some American silver coin amounting to something less than five dollars.” This cornerstone was pried off the foundation and the money taken out by parties unknown shortly after. John Kanouse and Benjamin Jenkins built the church. The wood came from Abraham Fairchild on the Fairville Road. The church was rectangular in design and painted white. It faced the park. There were two rows of four windows on either side and two rows of windows of the same size in the rear. The steeple rose from the front gable in two sections. The entrance had two steps and a platform a little wider than the doorway which opened into a vestibule. The floor extended across the church its whole interior width. The main auditorium was entered from the vestibule by two doors, one on each side of the pulpit. The main floor contained four rows of pews painted white. There were sixty-two pews in all. These pews were largely the private property of their occupants; the sale of the pews funded the building of the church. Staircases on either side led to an upper floor with entrance to the gallery. The gallery extended along the sides and across the east end—supported by large pillars. The choir occupied the east end of the gallery. On this level there was a room used for session meetings, prayer, meetings, etc.

The meeting house was completed and dedicated in the Fall of 1827. The first Session meeting was held on December 7, 1827. This house of worship was used for twenty-five years. During the first two years there was no heat in the meeting house except for the foot-warmers brought by some individual members of the congregation. About 1828, Samuel Tracy began leading the singing using a tuning fork. There was no instrumental accompaniment.

The Pastors/Leadership:

For the first year and a half after the founding of the church, there was no regular pastor. Various preachers conducted the services. The Rev. Benjamin Bailey (the window ‘Christ in the Temple’ was given by his descendants) moderated six of the earliest Session meetings. He was one of two ministers who served the church. The Rev. Mr. Beardsley presided over the first Holy Communion on Sunday, August 14, 1825. He also baptized Henry Theodore—the son of Theodore and Electa Partridge on Friday, August 12, 1825. Before the arrival of the first settled pastor, the church added twenty-five members, nine of whom joined by letter from other churches, and sixteen after membership training. There were five dismissals, and three deaths, increasing the membership from sixty-three to eighty. Peter Cook and Deacon John Kanouse were elected ruling elders on August 12, 1825. The session was thus increased from three to five members.

The first pastor was the Rev. Alfred Campbell. He was installed on Wednesday, November 27, 1826. This was dissolved in September of 1828. His successor was the Rev. Peter Kanouse. He was installed on Wednesday, September 17, 1828. He remained until the Fall of 1830. James Boyle was an evangelist. He was never installed as a pastor. Still he filled a gap—leaving Newark sometime between June and September of 1831. Henry Snyder acted as Stated Supply for five or six months. He left sometime between April and May of 1832. The Rev. Joseph Ware was never installed. He served as State Supply for three years. George Washington Elliott was installed in August of 1835 after a re-organization of the church in April of 1835. He served about one year. The Rev. David Cushing was installed in 1837. This relationship was dissolved in 1843. The church had become seriously divided and in serious financial straits during his pastorate.

The Members/Congregation:

By 1832, membership was listed as 240. In 1835, the Society was reorganized. There was no change in ecclesiastical organization—but the minutes did include that they voted to proceed and organize a Religious Society. This would be known and distinguished as the Presbyterian Society of Newark. They elected five Trustees. In 1837, they hired a sexton to build fires, to light, and to take care of the meeting house on a part-time basis. In 1838 a Sunday School was organized. In 1844, when Rev. Shumway arrived, the church had a membership of 230. What I did note in the reading over and over, was the church's struggle with money—with paying pastors and paying the sexton, with keeping up with repairs and brainstorming ways to raise funds. Rev. Cushing had encouraged the building of the bell tower and the buying of the bell—and put personnel funds toward this—so much so that the congregation owed him for the bell when they dissolved their relationship. I also notice a great number of turn-overs of pastors—but perhaps this was way back then. Perhaps Rev. Shumway's description of Newark upon his arrival helps us to understand.

“The population of Newark was about eighteen hundred...No railroad had been built; packets and freight-boats on the canal, and the cumbrous stage, were means of travel and transportation. There was no electric telegraph nor line of express, and news was brought by packet and stage. There were in the village five places of worship—the Methodist Episcopal, Presbyterian, Baptist, Reformed Dutch, and Universalist.”

In Christ,
Susan

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION:

Summer Book Study: Reckless Love by Tom Berlin:

How did Jesus teach the Greatest Commandment to his disciples? In his latest book Reckless Love, author and Pastor Tom Berlin writes that Jesus taught them to love neighbor first as a way to more deeply love God. In his exploration of Jesus’ teaching and travels with his disciples, Berlin suggests that Jesus teaches us how to love God with heart, soul, mind, and strength by showing us how to love our neighbor. While many hope to learn to be better family, friends, leaders, and neighbors by finding a deeper relationship with God, what if becoming a better neighbor leads you to that deeper love of God? In Reckless Love, you will consider your life, and learn how loving the people around you will completely renew your faith and give you a new experience of loving God.

WORSHIP AND MUSIC TEAM:

Communion: Will be by Intinction on July 7, and August 7th. The Worship and Music Team along with the Session, decided that Communion would be by Intinction; they also realize that not everyone is comfortable with Intinction. The pre-filled juice/wafers will be available to those who do not wish to come forward for Intinction. These may be used as the rest of the congregation comes forward to receive Communion by Intinction after I have given “The Great Thanksgiving.” Say to yourself, “The Body of Christ given for me.” and eat the wafer. Say to yourself, “The blood of Christ shed for me,” and drink the juice. When everyone is ready, say the prayer after communion with the rest of the Body of Christ. Amen.

Laurel House: Laurel House is a not-for-profit volunteer community organization in Newark, NY, formed with its first meeting on November 7, 2014, and incorporated in May 2015. The idea of Laurel House, a volunteer-driven home providing free end-of-life care for Wayne County residents and their families, originated decades ago with Jean Cass, a nurse who watched one of her dear friends succumb to a difficult death from breast cancer. Jean's passion for a better way to care for the dying brought about the comfort care home, the House of John in Clifton Springs and was the impetus for doing the same in Newark. While Laurel House Comfort Care provides end-of-life care free of charge, it costs over $200,000 to operate the home. Donations are appreciated! To contact them call 315-573-7028.

PRAYER FOR SUMMERTIME

Loving God, Creator of all times and places, we thank you for the gift of summertime, the days of light, warmth and leisure.

Thank you for the beauty that surrounds us everywhere we look: the multi-colored flowers, the deep blue of the sky, the tranquil surface of lakes, the laughter of children at play, people strolling in parks, families gathered around picnic tables and the more time to spend with family and friends.

As we open our eyes and ears to the landscape of nature and people, open our hearts to receive all as gift. Give us that insight to see you as the Divine Artist. Help us to realize and appreciate that you are laboring to keep all in existence. Warm our souls with the awareness of your presence.

Let all the gifts we enjoy this summer deepen our awareness of your love so that we may share this with others and enjoy a summertime of re-creation.

AMEN
