FROM THE PASTOR, TERRY JOHNSTON

fbcterryj@att.net

“Devote yourselves to prayer, being watchful and thankful. And pray for us, too, that God may open a door for our message, so that we may proclaim the mystery of Christ...”
Colossians 4:2-3a

Dear Church Family,

The world has changed, but God’s mission has not. Because of God’s love for the world, it is his desire that all people of the world might be saved through their faith in Jesus Christ. As people of faith, we are a part of God’s redeeming work in the world, and our world is getting smaller and smaller. Due to new technology and strategy, we are able to find connections today that were impossible in past decades.

Last year, our church began a partnership through Texas Baptists and the Brazilian Baptist Convention with the Missionary Adoption Program. For almost a year now, we have sent a monthly donation to specifically sponsor Rhuan Kaique as he and his partner missionary Roni de Sousa plant a church in the Amazonian river community of Caapiranga. In February, Jair Campos, director of MAP for Texas Baptists came and preached here at FBC and gave us more information about an upcoming mission trip to meet, support, and work alongside the missionaries that Texas Baptists support, including Rhuan. Following Jair’s visit and through prayer, FBC voted to send myself and Terry Sloan on the first international trip to Brazil. From May 28-June 4, Terry and I will travel with 27 others from Texas to the Amazon.

While Terry and I will be physically representing FBC in Brazil, we cannot go without your prayer. Just as Paul wrote to encourage the Colossians, I encourage you also to devote yourselves to prayer. Pray that God will open a door for our message. Rhuan, Roni, and the other missionaries are already doing the work of the gospel. We are going not to bring anything “new” to them, but to encourage and strengthen our partnership in the gospel. Jair has emphasized that this is not a vacation—that it is a physically demanding and strenuous trip. Pray for our health and our stamina.

We will also have an exciting opportunity to bring various supplies to the missionaries. A list is found in this newsletter and also in the foyer at church. Some ordinary things that we find in great supply here in the US are in demand and hard to come by in remote places like the Amazon. I pray that your generosity will overflow as we deliver these gifts to be used by the missionaries to further God’s Kingdom.

It is my prayer that our initial visit will lead to more doors being opened for the gospel. I pray that the Holy Spirit will expand our local church’s involvement in what He is doing globally. I pray that this is just the start of how God is using FBC internationally, and that other as other opportunities arise, we will be faithful to sense the Spirit’s call and leadership.

I thank you in advance for your prayer and support.

Bro. Terry

Christian Women's Job Corps

Our church will be providing snacks for both the GED class and the Spring Career Track class of Christian Women's Job Corps on Tuesday, April 24. We will need snacks for approximately 18 women, plus enough for our group if we plan to visit with the women during their break. If you would like to help provide the snacks, please let Eula McKown (855-9208) know.

If you would like to go to CWJC on April 24 to take the snacks and visit with the women, you are welcome to do so. We will leave the church at approximately 9:30 A.M. so we will have time to set out the snacks before the break time at 10:30 A.M. This is a wonderful way to provide support for these women who are working to get back on their feet and learn about the Lord.

Annie Armstrong Easter Offering

The Annie Armstrong Easter Offering® is named after Annie Armstrong who was the first corresponding secretary for the Woman's Missionary Union (WMU). This annual offering celebrates Annie Armstrong's life and legacy--one that centered around encouraging and stirring up others to support and be involved in missions endeavors. She wrote over 18,000 letters in one year to spur on giving towards missions. Her love to reach the lost did not start there. Annie Armstrong also worked diligently in her community to reach out to those around her through a kind word, giving a hug, or handing out clothing. The offering is given to missionaries serving in North American through the North American Mission Board (NAMB).

First Baptist Church will collect for the offering throughout the month of April, beginning Easter Sunday, April 1. Our church's goal is $1,000.

Women on Mission

The next Women on Mission luncheon will be April 15th immediately following worship service. We will be making cards with Jo Marie.

April 11th after Wednesday night prayer meeting, we will be putting together our candy bar for CWJC. We will be leaving the church April 12th at 9:30 if anyone would like to join us to deliver and set up the candy bar. Thank you ladies for all your hard work!

Recipes

Double Stuffed Carrot Sweet Potatoes

hiddenvally.com

- ½ cup Hidden Valley® Original Ranch® Dressing
- ½ cup orange juice
- ½ teaspoon nutmeg
- 1 cup carrots diced
- 1 cup pecans chopped
- 2 tablespoons brown sugar
- 4 large sweet potatoes (about the same size so they cook evenly)

Preheat oven to 375°F. Cut potatoes in half lengthwise. Place potatoes cut-side down on a baking sheet sprayed with cooking spray. Bake for 35-45 minutes until potatoes are soft. Allow to cool enough to handle with oven mitts.

Meanwhile, pour the orange juice into a sauce pan over medium heat. Add the diced carrots and cover.

Simmer over low heat for 15 minutes until carrots are softened. Remove the carrots from the pan and dump into the bowl of a food processor.

With a spoon, scoop out the sweet potatoes—careful to leave the skins to restuff. Add the sweet potato meat to the food processor bowl along with the nutmeg, brown sugar and Hidden Valley® The Original Ranch® Dressing. Process for several minutes until well pureed.

Restuff the potato skins with the potato/carrot puree and bake for another 25 minutes. Garnish with chopped pecans and serve.

Easter Brunch Punch

mrfood.com

- 1 (12-ounce) can frozen orange juice concentrate, thawed
- 1 (12-ounce) can frozen lemonade concentrate, thawed
- 3 cups pineapple juice
- 2 cups peach nectar
- 1 (1-liter) bottle ginger ale
- 5 cups ice cubes
- Orange, lemon, and pineapple slices for garnish

In a large punch bowl, combine orange juice and lemonade concentrates, and pineapple juice and peach nectar; stir until well combined.

Cover and chill until ready to serve then stir in ginger ale and ice cubes, float fruit slices on top, and serve immediately.

Orange Chicken

tasteofhome.com

- 1 large egg
- 1/3 cup orange juice
- 1 to 1-1/2 cups herb-seasoned stuffing mix, crushed
- 1-1/2 teaspoons paprika
- 1 tablespoon grated orange zest
- 1 teaspoon salt
- 8 boneless skinless chicken breast halves
- 6 tablespoons butter, melted
- Orange slices, optional

In a shallow bowl, beat egg and orange juice. In another bowl, combine stuffing mix, paprika, orange zest and salt.

Dip chicken in egg mixture, then in crumbs, turning to coat well. Pour butter into a 13x9-in. baking dish. Place chicken in baking dish, turning once to butter both sides.

Bake, uncovered, at 375° for 45 minutes or until a thermometer reads 170°. If desired, garnish with orange slices. Yield: 8 servings

Key Lime Cheesecake

allrecipes.com

- 1 1/2 cups finely ground graham cracker crumbs
- 2 tablespoons white sugar
- 1/4 cup unsalted butter, melted
- 1 1/4 pounds cream cheese, softened
- 3/4 cup white sugar
- 1 cup sour cream
- 3 tablespoons all-purpose flour
- 3 eggs
- 3/4 cup key lime juice
- 1 teaspoon vanilla extract

To make Crust: In a bowl stir together the graham cracker crumbs and 2 tablespoons sugar, stir in the butter well. Pat the mixture into the bottom and 1/2 inch up the side of a buttered 10 inch springform pan and bake the crust in a preheated 375° oven for 8 minutes. Transfer the pan to a rack and cool.

In a large bowl with an electric mixer, beat cream cheese and 3/4 cup sugar until smooth, beat in the eggs, one at a time, beating well after each addition. Beat in the sour cream, flour, lime juice and vanilla. Beat the mixture until it is smooth.

Pour the filling over the crust. Bake the cheesecake in the preheated oven for 15 minutes, reduce the temperature to 250° and bake for 50 to 55 minutes longer, or until center is barely set.

Let the cheesecake cool on a rack, then chill it, covered, overnight. Remove the cheesecake from the pan and transfer it to a cake stand.
