How do you measure the size of God? I think it's beyond our feeble human minds to even attempt to try to understand how big, how awesome, how amazing, and how wonderful God truly is. One of my favorite authors, Bob Goff, says in his new book, Everybody Always, "We shouldn't be surprised when we don't understand what a God who says He surpasses all understanding is doing."

As you read this, unless something has gone terribly wrong, Terry Sloan and I have been sent by FBC McGregor to the Amazon rainforest of Brazil on a MAP mission trip with Texas Baptists. It was in the June 2017 newsletter where we celebrated the partnership between FBC and Rhuan Kaique, our sponsored missionary in Brazil. At some point during the week, Terry and I hope to come face to face with Rhuan, his new wife Nubia, and his partner Roni and personally be able to thank him for what he is doing for the sake of the Gospel. We will be able to get a firsthand look at some of the needs Rhuan has for their ministry, and to see ways that future visits from FBC can enhance what it is God is already doing in Caapiranga.

In our May business meeting, we unanimously voted to provide the funds for a Worship House (only $2850) to be used by either our sponsored missionary Rhuan or another of the missionaries currently planting churches in the Amazon communities. This is an outstanding picture of how the Kingdom of God is bursting forth in us and finding fresh soil in somewhere as far away as Brazil!

We also are seeing the fruit of people's time, resources, and money to enhance our support of the Community Pack of Hope, which provides food for children on the weekends, when there might not be enough food at home for them. Through the generosity of local leaders and some in our church, funds have been raised to continue the feeding throughout the summer months so that no child goes hungry.

It is a testimony to God and his amazing blessings that we are able to do all of these things. We are so grateful to God and to the generous people of FBC for supporting all of this Kingdom work. Pray for Terry and me as we serve alongside the missionaries in Brazil, that we would be safe, healthy, and effective for the Kingdom.

In Christ,

Bro. Terry

Prayer Ministry

In the coming months at FBC, we are blessed to consider how we can deepen both our individual and our corporate prayer lives. Take note of the various "prayer notes" in our publications, and really consider how effective and purposeful prayer is to everything we do.

"Prayer is the soul's sincere desire,
 Unuttered or expressed;
 The motion of a hidden fire
 That trembles in the breast."

—James Montgomery, 1771-1854

VBS!

Vacation Bible School will be held June 17-21 from 6:00-8:00 pm with the theme, Babylon, Daniel's Courage in Captivity. Ages 4-sixth grade are invited and encouraged to attend.

Did you know that Daniel was way more than the guy who survived a den of hungry lions?

Join Daniel—torn from his home and forced into the king's service. Explore exotic sights and smells in a Babylonian bazaar! Kids and adults will find that they're not much different from Daniel and his friends, who kept their faith in a faithless culture.

Misti McAdams is directing this year's VBS, so be on the lookout for ways you can participate and help serve in Babylon!

Following is a list of VBS supplies needed to borrow:

- Pop-up tents
- Greenery (trees, plants, vines)
- Baskets of all sizes
- Flat sheets to hang from tents
- Stuffed lion

Please put your name on any item that you would like to be returned at the end of VBS.

VBS volunteers still needed:

- Family tribe leaders
- Palace playground
- Celebration leader
- Marketplace (crafts)

If you'd like to volunteer, please add your name to the sign-up sheet in the foyer of the church.

Tuesday, May 29, Pastor Terry sent a text stating, "Good morning! Checking in—we got in safely, got to bed about 1230 local time, got up, had breakfast at the hotel, then walked to a local supermarket. Back at hotel now waiting to load up for a lunch, then we are supposed to get on the boat about 3. Here's the view of Manaus from the roof of the hotel!" He also said they were having Brazilian barbecue for lunch and that his phone worked fine at the moment but charging could be an issue. The second picture shows him standing in front of a "river, not a lake!"

Please continue to pray for Pastor Terry and Terry Sloan as the Brazil Mission Trip comes to a close June 5.

Whole Wheat Pancakes with Blueberry Sauce

merckengage.com

2 cups fresh or frozen blueberries
3/4 cup water, divided
2 tbsp sugar
1 tbsp cornstarch
1 1/2 cups dry oatmeal
1/2 cup whole-wheat flour
2 tbsp brown sugar
1/4 tsp cinnamon
1 1/2 tsp baking powder
1/4 cup dry instant nonfat milk
1 1/4 cups warm water
1/2 cup egg substitute
Nonstick cooking spray
2 sliced bananas

Place a small saucepan over medium-high heat and add the blueberries, 1/2 cup water, and sugar. Cook for 3 to 4 minutes.

In a small bowl, combine the remaining 1/4 cup water and cornstarch and add to saucepan. Stir and cook 1 to 2 minutes to thicken. Remove from heat. Set aside and keep warm.

Meanwhile, place dry oatmeal in a blender and blend for 5 to 10 seconds to make oat flour. Pour into a large bowl and add whole-wheat flour, brown sugar, cinnamon, baking powder, and dry milk. Mix well. Add warm water and egg substitute, stirring until the dry ingredients are moistened.

Spray a large skillet or griddle with nonstick cooking spray. Place the skillet over medium-high heat and spoon 1/4 cup batter for each pancake. Turn pancake when the top is bubbly and the edges are slightly dry. Repeat to make 12, 3- to 4-inch pancakes.

Serve blueberry sauce and sliced bananas over hot pancakes. Makes 4 servings.

Apple Cranberry Salad

merckengage.com

2 chopped apples
1 cup chopped celery
1 tbsp lemon juice
5 tbsp dried cranberries
1/2 cup nonfat plain yogurt
1 tbsp honey

In a large bowl combine the apples, celery, lemon juice, and cranberries.

In a small bowl mix the yogurt and honey.

Add the yogurt dressing to the apple mixture and mix well. Makes 4 servings.

Creamy Salmon Chowder

merckengage.com

Nonstick cooking spray
1 tbsp olive oil
3/4 cup chopped onion
1 cup chopped celery
1/2 cup chopped red bell pepper
1 1/2 cups chopped carrots
3 cups red potatoes, cut into 1/2-inch pieces
1 1/2 cups frozen, whole-kernel corn
2 cups low-sodium chicken broth
2 cups water
1/2 tsp dried dill
1/4 tsp salt
1/4 tsp marjoram
1 lb skinless salmon fillets
2 tbsp cornstarch
2 cups nonfat or 1% milk
3/4 cup frozen petite green peas

Spray a saucepan with nonstick cooking spray. Place the saucepan over medium-high heat and add olive oil. When hot, add onion, celery, and pepper. Sauté for 2 to 3 minutes.

Add carrots, potatoes, corn, chicken broth, water, dill, salt, and marjoram. Bring to a boil. Cover. Reduce heat and simmer for 10 minutes or until potatoes are tender.

Meanwhile, rinse salmon fillets. In another saucepan, bring to boil an adequate amount of water to cover salmon for poaching. Add salmon. When water begins to boil again, reduce the heat. Cover. Simmer for 6 to 8 minutes or until salmon flakes easily with a fork. Remove and discard poaching water. Flake salmon into small pieces. Set aside.

Combine the cornstarch with the milk and add to the potato mixture. Add peas and cook 3 to 4 minutes. Add the salmon and cook 2 to 3 more minutes to heat through. Makes 4 servings.
