“I have told you this so that you will have peace by being united to Me. The world will make you suffer. But be brave! I have defeated the world.”

John 16:33 (GNT)

Let us pray...

Father God, the God of peace, we honor You in this time of great thanksgiving to reflect on Your goodness and mercy towards us. You have been our bright light in the midst of our troubles. You have been our hope in desperate and dangerous times. You have been our joy in moments of grief and loss. You have been our strength when we have been wearied and worn down. You have been our shield, protecting us in this battle of life. You have been faithful and have never left us alone. Holy Spirit, we will not be anxious for anything but in every situation, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, present our requests to God. Let the peace of God, which transcends all understanding, guard our hearts and minds in Christ Jesus. We draw on Your strength, Jesus, as we do what You have called us to do. We believe that in all things, God works for our good as we live out His purpose. We believe that we are more than conquerors through Him who loved us. Hallelujah, Your love has overcome the world. We are grateful to rest in the assurance of Your words. Let them fill us to overflowing so that we may sing praises to Your name. We rest in Your peace, Lord. In Your name, Jesus, we pray. Amen.
