Trying Again

“But as for you, be strong and do not give up, for your work will be rewarded.”

2 Chronicles 15:7 (NIV)

Let us pray...

Father God, we praise You and give You thanks for each and every day that we are blessed with to give Your name the glory. We honor You for being our Father in heaven. We thank You for Your presence here on earth and Your constant care over our lives. We thank You that You are the stronghold of our lives. We are able to find our strength, our purpose, and our power through You. Help us Holy Spirit as we maneuver through the days of this new year. Help us to live by the standards of our Lord Jesus. Guide us by the wisdom of Your word that gives us insight into the heart of our Father. When we are weak, help us to call on You for strength. When we are tired, help us to call on You for rest. When we are unsure and confused, help us to call on You for greater faith and understanding. We press on in the name of Jesus to live and share this journey of faith. We do not seek the accolades of men, but we want the glory of the Lord to shine in us and through us to do the work that You have called us to do. Thank You for the great reward that is in heaven and the sweet rewards of Your presence every day. In Your name, Jesus, we pray. Amen.
