

Well May was one heck of a month. Personally, my brain cannot handle all the grief that surrounded us. I've cried, ranted, prayed and struggled with the pain of it all. Father Charlie shared a poem with us, on the last Sunday of May, it was beautiful, and I will make sure a copy of it gets into the Newsletter. Thank you, Charlie.

We made it through the Tag Sale unscathed. Fr. Leon was a stellar Hot Dog Cooker and Lynn took charge of the Popcorn. With the help of Tania Mousaw, Bob and Judy Olmsted, Sue Gerling, Pat Davis, Bob and Roberta Kincaid, we had a wonderful day. Thank you all for your help!

We are gearing up for the Oz Fest coming up. Another busy adventure for sure!! I won't be there to help, as Clayton is doing a Rocket Challenge at the MOST with some classmates of his. But I know they will survive without me there.

June is the month of Father's Day and Graduations – though some graduations from college have already occurred. Here are the names of those I found out about, in no particular order:

Faith Macri – Faith is the grand-daughter of Fr. Leon and Lynn Mozeliak. Faith is graduating from Whitesboro High School.

Taylor Hoffman – Taylor is grand-daughter of Ed and Donna Hoffman. She is graduating from ESM High School and will be going to St. John's Fisher in the Fall, where she will major in Education.

Kara Winters – Kara is daughter of Dawn Winters and grand-daughter to Janet Winters. She is graduating from Canastota High School and will be attending Buffalo State, where she will be majoring in Education.

Emma Thornton – Emma is grand-daughter of Val Thornton. She is graduating from Cazenovia High School and is planning on attending Niagara University to major in Fine Arts.

Karlie Robinson – Karlie is the daughter of Karin and Dave Robinson, grand-daughter of Art and Dorothy Norlander. Karlie has graduated from SUNY Fredonia with a BFA in Theater Production and Design. She will be working at Chautauqua Institute in the summer. She is applying for Stage Manager positions in NYC for Fall. Karlie has the Excelsior Scholarship, so she needs to work in NYS for 4 yrs.

Sami Just – Sami is the daughter of Jill and Steve Just, grand-daughter of Jim and Judy Montgomery. Sami graduated from Nazareth College with a BFA in Studio Art. She is taking the summer to figure out what direction she wants to go in.

Jackson Lawrence - Jackson is the son of Jack Lawrence and Kimberly Johnson. Jackson graduated from Ithaca College where he majored in Sports Media.

Jayda Lawrence – Jayda is the daughter of Jack Lawrence and Kimberly Johnson. She is graduating from Chittenango High School and going to Oswego in the Fall, to major in Graphic Design.

Emma Stansbury – Emma is the daughter of Gordon and Natalie Stansbury. She is graduation from Chittenango High School and will be attending SUNY Potsdam in the fall. She will be majoring in Studio Art and Psychology.

My apologies if I have missed anyone's family member. So many of these young people we have watched grow up here at St. Paul's and they have become wonderful young adults.

We have been blessed to be able to watch them grow. Like I told Clayton, I cannot imagine what the families from Texas are feeling, knowing they will never see their child again, or celebrate their firsts. We are blessed.
